BIG POLITICAL WAR OPENS IN ENGLAND!

Bandits Nab Joyriders!

ROBBERS USE SPOTLIGHT TO ASSIST HOLDUP

Two Men and Two Women Victims, Losing Both Money and Jewelry

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 15.—Blinded by the glare of an automobile spotlight directed upon them by one bandit while two others held revolvers over them demanding money, a joy riding party of two women and two men was robbed of $133 in cash and $120 worth of jewelry at Western avenue and 107th street early today, according to the police.

The victims of the holdup were Miss Martha Naan, Mrs. Marie Holt, Tom Martinovich and William Gjursich.

The bandits forced their victims' car to the side of the road, and while one bandit remained in his car training a powerful spotlight on the quartet the other two leaped to the running board of the second machine and with pistols demanded their money and valuables.

Burglars Flee When Call for Help Is Sent

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 15.—Declaring that two burglars were trying to break into his home in East Fifty-third street, Lee Roy rushed into the street early today and called Patrolman Waltman.

When the officer returned to the house there were several men lurking in the shadows, Waltman reported. The officer then sent in a call for help, hoping to capture all the men. When the additional officers arrived none of the suspected burglars could be found.

Italy Urges Delay in Fixing German Penalty

ROME, Nov. 15.—Italy is doubtful whether the council of ambassadors at Paris will be able to settle the question of penalties upon Germany (as demanded by France), according to semi-official sources today. Italy is understood to be suggesting that decision be reserved until the allied Powers can exchange views.

Elections in Britain Halt Foreign Policy

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Due to the election situation, Great Britain cannot take any new steps regarding foreign policy, the foreign office announced today. Great Britain is thus unable to act upon proposed new penalties or the reported decision of the German government to stop all reparations payments.

Shotgun Bandits Get $14,000 in Bold Raid

COLLINSVILLE, Ill., Nov. 15.—Five or six bandits, armed with sawed-off shotguns, today raided the main office of the Consolidated Coal company, held up Charles James and Ernest Meyer, clerks, and escaped in an automobile with $14,000. Several posses were in pursuit.

CAMINETTI DYING

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—Death of Anthony Caminetti, former United States immigration commissioner, at his Jackson home is expected at almost any minute today.

LATEST NEWS

LIFT BAN ON JAP CODE MESSAGES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—The removal of all restrictions in Japan concerning the use of code languages and the responsibility for handling radiograms to or from Tokio, Yokohama and all other districts affected by the recent earthquakes and fire was announced by G. E. Baxter, traffic superintendent of the Radio Corporation of America today.

ITALY IS GOAL OF EX-CROWN PRINCE

PARIS, Nov. 15.—The former German crown prince is reported to have requested a passport to enable him to go to Italy, where he plans to join his brother, Prince Albert, now at Morano, said a Rome dispatch to the newspaper Soir today.

PIONEER WOMAN LAWYER SUCCUMBS

SANTA ROSA, Nov. 15.—Mrs. Frances M. Martin, one of the first woman lawyers in the state of California, and a noted educator, died at her home here today. She was admitted to the practice of law in the early nineties and prior to that time was county superintendent of schools. She came to California from Gettysburg, Pennsylvania in 1874.

ASKS G. O. P. CHAIRMEN TO JOIN PROTEST

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—Renewing his attack upon what he terms "the unjust and inequitable apportionment of delegates" to the next Republican national convention, Albert E. Boynton, chairman of the California Republican state committee, announced today he has wired Republican chairmen in a number of important states urging that they join with California in a protest to the Republican national committee.

YALE WORKS OUT FOR PRINCETON GAME

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 15.—Yale will indulge in a light workout this afternoon in preparation for the Princeton game, with Murphy, the St. Louis spitfire, handling the varsity team at quarterback, according to present plans. Murphy is expected to get the call on Saturday, provided Richeson's charley horse fails to react to treatment. Today's drill will be brief and light.

FOUR CITIES FIGHT FOR GATHERING OF G. O. P.

Chicago, Cleveland, Des Moines and San Francisco in Race

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
For International News Service

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Choice of a city in which to hold the Republican national convention next June narrowed down today to four cities—Chicago, San Francisco, Cleveland and Des Moines. Final decision will be made among these four.

Denver, which had figured in the early bidding for the convention, withdrew, leaving the representatives of the other four to engage in a spirited competition today before a sub-committee of the Republican national committee that is considering sites.

Hiram Johnson, McAdoo to Announce Candidacies

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—William G. McAdoo soon will throw his hat in the ring for the Democratic presidential nomination, today said Judge David L. Rockwell, of Ravenna, Ohio, who is managing the campaign of Mr. McAdoo's friends to obtain the nomination for him. Hard on the heels of McAdoo's departure for his home in California after several days of consultations here, Judge Rockwell issued a formal statement which says in part:

"Mr. McAdoo can and will speak for himself when the time to speak arises. It would not be candid, however, with many press representatives who have asked if important political developments are not probable should I seek to disguise the fact that Mr. McAdoo's friends believe he will offer for the presidential nomination, that he will be nominated and that he will be elected.

"We have heard in the last three days from more than forty states. That the whole country is calling aloud for leadership is manifest. We affirm that Mr. McAdoo is the one great figure now available in our party."

Formal announcement of his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination will be made tomorrow by Senator Hiram Johnson of California, it was said today by persons close to him.

Up to date Senator Johnson, who has been in Chicago for a week conferring with friends, has taken a strictly listening attitude but it was reported his announcement would include an outline of the issues upon which he would make his campaign.

Republican National Committee to Hold Meet

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The Republican national committee will meet during the week of next June 9-16, according to beliefs expressed today by members of the national committee here to consider plans for the quadriennial meeting.

A sub-committee of the national committee, headed by David Mulvane of Kansas, met today to hear representatives of the cities that are most active in seeking the convention—Chicago, Cleveland, San Francisco, Denver and Des Moines. They were questioned principally concerning hotel rates and accommodations.

San Francisco was represented by John F. Shea and Warren Shannon, who, incidentally, are speaking of the vice-presidential possibilities of James Rolph, Jr., recently elected mayor of San Francisco for the fourth time.

Des Moines claims were presented by ex-Senator Charles Rawson.

Huge Hog Shipments Cause Drop in Prices

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—The second largest hog receipts of the year today sent hog prices down 10 to 15 cents at the local yards with the top at $7.05 for choice hogs that brought $9.75 in September, when top prices for the year were reached. Receipts today were estimated at 60,000, with 12,680 left over from yesterday. The market was only moderately active.

STILL HAUNTING HIS PATH

HOT DEBATE ON PREMIER BALDWIN'S POLICIES

Leaders of All Parties Get Chance to State Their Individual Views

By DAVID M. CHURCH
For International News Service

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The British political campaign opens today with debate in commons upon the motion censuring the government. It was introduced Tuesday by Ramsay Macdonald, laborite, and leader of the opposition.

The motion gave the leaders of all parties an opportunity to air their views upon the Baldwin cabinet's policies.

Dissensions are reported in Tory ranks.

Lord Derby, secretary of state for war, and a number of Lancashire conservatives, have come out against Premier Baldwin's policy of protective tariff.

Lack of Funds

It was reported the laborites, in order to gain recruits from the opposing political forces, have decided to drop from their platform the plank demanding a levy on capital.

It is evident the labor party will be caught at a disadvantage because of a lack of funds.

Former Premier H. H. Asquith in a speech today charged that the Baldwin government has "brought Great Britain to the lowest ebb in the councils of Europe."

"The calling of a general election is unfair" added the ex-premier. "Restoration of Europe is the only remedy for unemployment."

Inside and Outside

The concerted political fight against Premier Stanley Baldwin began today both in and out of the house of commons. Ramsay Macdonald, laborite, and leader of the opposition in commons, in a speech supporting the motion censuring the government, denounced Baldwin's failure to relieve unemployment. Macdonald urged that Russia be a beneficiary under the proposed export credit scheme.

Premier Stanley Baldwin defended his home and foreign policies in a speech in the house of commons this afternoon.

"It is indeed difficult to maintain indefinitely attempts to work together when the allies make it so hard, but it would not bring peace by making fresh enemies," said the premier.

ADDITION TO RESEARCH HOSPITAL

One or More Units to Be Built, Now Is Plan of Board of Directors

Announcement was made this morning by the board of directors of the Glendale Research hospital that, according to present plans, at least one, and possibly two new units will be constructed soon after the first of the coming year. This step is made necessary by the rapidly increasing population of the city, and the constant demand for more hospital accommodation.

"We have beds at the present time for forty patients," said Dr. T. C. Young, a member of the board, this morning, "and we plan to at least double the capacity. We realize that we have been crowded for some time past, due to the demand for room which surpassed our highest expectations.

Board Unanimous

"We have repeated requests from surgeons for use of the operating room and wards which we are not able to grant, and hope to alter the situation by the erection of these new units.

"Our plans are rather in the embryo stage yet, but the entire board, consisting of Roy L. Kent, A. L. Baird, Harry E. Hall and R. M. Brown, in addition to myself, is unanimous in the belief that work should be started as soon as possible."

HOG CHOLERA RAMPANT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Hog cholera is more prevalent in the United States now than when the last extensive epidemic reached its height in 1914, the department of agriculture has announced.

November Permits Steadily Increasing, Year Is $8,484,661

With the granting of one permit to W. T. Jefferson for a store building to cost $40,000 and another to the American Security & Fidelity company for a water and observation tower back of Forest Lawn to cost $21,000, the total for November took a decided advance toward the coveted $1,000,000 mark for the month.

With the month one-half gone, the total stands at $373,224. As there are several large projects under consideration, it is not improbable that the last half of the month will show a much larger amount of permits than the first half. The total for the year now amounts to $8,484,661.

ROTARIANS ADMIT TWO CANDIDATES

Paul Stillman and Dr. Newton Join Club's Ranks at Weekly Luncheon

Two new members, Paul Stillman and Dr. Warren Z. Newton, were admitted to membership in the Glendale Rotary club at today's meeting in Jensen's Egyptian Village, the latter speaking on the objects, benefits and rewards of Rotary.

L. F. Millet, manager of the Sun Drug company, spoke on the plans that are being made to deliver a series of lectures on salesmanship.

Prof. Geo. U. Moyse, principal of the Glendale Union High school, urged the members to turn out for the football game between Glendale and Covina tomorrow for the championship of the Central league.

It was decided that the meeting regularly scheduled for November 29 will be held on Wednesday, November 28, as the regular date comes on Thanksgiving day. Glendale's singing burgomaster, Spencer Robinson, sang two songs, "Friends of Mine" and "Until."

W. E. Hewitt brought a number of bouquets of chrysanthemums from his own garden, and Mrs. D. Gritton of the Jensen Floral Shop, presented each member and guest with two pink carnations.

Visiting Rotarians were Hugh Chaffee and Lucius Jarvis of Pasadena, F. Curt Miller of Burbank and Henry J. Friesen of Grand Forks, N. D.

GENERAL JONES DEAD

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 15.—General Ralph W. Jones, a native of Kansas, 47, is dead at his home here today.

BUILDING AT LOS FELIZ, CENTRAL

All Night Drug Store to Be One Feature of New $40,000 Structure

The start of a Great White Way in the Central avenue and Los Feliz Road section is seen in the issuance of a building permit totaling $40,000 to W. T. Jefferson of Pasadena to construct a business block on the northwest corner of these two main thoroughfares, the outstanding feature of which will be an all-night drug store, said to have but one predecessor in southern California.

The building will be curved on the corner, according to plans announced this morning by Mr. Jefferson, with the Central avenue front set back ten feet to the proposed new building line, giving unusual parking space and adding to the value of a prospective theatre site adjoining the property on Los Feliz Road.

The plans call for two-story construction, stores on the first floor and apartments and offices on the second, the latter fitted up for doctors and dentists. With 35,000 automobiles passing the corner daily, Mr. Jefferson feels that the location is ideal as a refreshment stopping-place.

To this end the all-night drug store will be the last word in modern equipment, he states, and will be conducted in such a manner as to make it famous as a headquarters of refreshment needs not only for residents of Glendale, but for the thousands of residents of other nearby cities constantly passing through, bound either for Los Angeles, Hollywood and Pasadena and the San Fernando Valley.

It is claimed by theatrical managers, moreover, that this section of Glendale, combining as it does the heaviest through traffic with the most ideal parking conditions and accessibility, offers more than any other point within equal distance of the Los Angeles business district a logical development center of large proportions.

Portugal Is Without Government in Crisis

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Portugal was without a government today, due to the failure of Dr. Menezes to form a cabinet, according to a Central News dispatch from Lisbon. It added that Alfonso Costa probably will be invited to try to form a new ministry.

Poses as Single Man, Faces Girl's Suit for $25,000

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—Because he represented himself as being a single man, Nelson M. Welbanks, salesman, today faced a $25,000 suit brought by Miss Alta E. Fipps, well known pianist.

Miss Fipps charges that Welbanks, a schooldays friend, renewed his acquaintance and invited her for a ride to the beach, representing that he had been "divorced a long time ago."

At a beach cafe, the suit alleges, an angry woman who, it developed, was Welbanks' wife, appeared and administered a severe beating to Miss Fipps.

Foil Plot to Corrupt German Morale

COTTBUS, Germany, Nov. 15.—German police today arrested fifteen communists, confiscating documents revealing a nation-wide conspiracy to undermine the morale of the reichswehr garrison troops and to paralyze industry throughout middle Germany.

Bandits Rob Bank of $20,000 R. R. Payroll

KANSAS CITY, Kan., Nov. 15.—Two officials of the Argentine State bank were held up today and robbed of $20,000 in cash, being taken to the bank to meet a payroll of the Santa Fe Railroad company. The bandits executed the robbery without a shot being fired.

Four Hunters Killed in Railway Accident

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Four hunters, all of Columbus, were killed at Frazeyburg today when struck by a Pennsylvania train. The dead are Oscar Norville, Henry Campbell, J. E. Turner and Henry Watson. The engine of the pasenger train, number 53, was derailed.

Great Britain, France, at Odds Over Greece

LONDON, Nov. 15.—A divergence of views has arisen between London and Paris regarding King George of Greece, it was admitted at the foreign office today. This new conflict of opinion widens the general breach existing between Great Britain and France.

NEW PLAN FOR FINANCING OF HOTEL

Dr. E. H. Parker to Lead in Promotion of Project on North Brand

A new plan for financing the hotel to be erected at the northwest corner of Brand boulevard and California avenue was outlined last night at an officially called meeting of Glendalia Hotel company stockholders held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 150 South Brand boulevard, Dr. E. H. Parker presiding and J. B. Burn acting as secretary.

Following agreement by Dr. Parker to lead in the promotion of the entire project, by arranging for finances and building through some substantial construction company which makes a business of putting up hotels, motion was carried that Dr. Parker be released from his obligations with the present company.

At an adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Glendalia Hotel company, to be held at 8 o'clock, Tuesday night, November 27, in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, Dr. Parker will present a full report of progress under the new arrangement.

Offers Information

Mattison B. Jones, attorney for the company, was present at last night's meeting and furnished valuable information as to the proper method of procedure to be used in financing the hotel along the lines now proposed. Present also was Alfred F. Priest, the company's architect, who advanced practical suggestions for furthering the plans.

It is now felt that development of this large-scale Glendale project will go forward rapidly. Officers and stockholders are deeply appreciative of the untiring labors by Dr. Parker, owner of the property on which the hotel is to be erected, to consummate this effort to give the city a much-needed improvement.

Those who have already paid money into the company's treasury will be reimbursed in due time, states Mr. Burn.

Debs Improves After Heart Attack, Report

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 15.—Eugene V. Debs, veteran Socialist leader, who was stricken with a heart attack last Friday, was reported "very much improved" today by attending physicians. He was able to sit up in bed for the first time since his collapse nearly a week ago.

Escaped Bandit Falls Into Pursuers' Hands

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 15.—Ending a search of more than two months, Novario Rangel, a "three time loser," who escaped from a train south of Visalia while being taken to San Quentin to serve a long term, was recaptured today at Salinas, according to a message from Salinas authorities to the sheriff's office here. Rangel was convicted of robbery when it was revealed he committed fifty-two crimes of this character in Pasadena.

Delay in Re-opening of King Tut's Tomb

LUXOR, Egypt., Nov. 15.—Reopening of the tomb of King Tut-Ankh-Amen, in the Valley of the Kings, which was set for today, has been delayed. Howard Carter, famous British Egyptologist, in charge of the work, has gone to Cairo, indicating the dispute with the Egyptian government over newspaper "rights" has not yet been adjusted.

Police Raid Reveals Fancy Liquor Stock

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 15.—One of the largest booze streams flowing from the Italian quarter of San Francisco into Los Angeles was "tapped" by the police, they claimed today, when they raided a fashionable cafe in West Adams street, said to be conducted by H. Rossan. Twelve quarts of rare Scotch whiskey and considerable old wine were netted in the raid.

WALTON IS ACCUSED

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 15.—Flagrant abuse of pardon and parole power was charged against Governor J. C. Walton of Oklahoma in his impeachment trial today.

Pasadena's Invitation To Navy Team Not Cancelled

PASADENA, Nov. 15.—W. F. Creller, chairman of the Tournament of Roses, emphatically denied today that the invitation to the Navy football eleven to play here New Year's day had been cancelled.

"Some one is trying to throw a monkey wrench in things," Creller declared when told that reports were going around that the Annapolis invitation had been canceled because of the poor showing the Navy team has made this year."

Creller indicated that if the invitation was to be canceled such a move would have to come from the Annapolis eleven.

Personal Mention

Raymond Eckert of 211 West Eulalia street and Lester Green recently spent a few days at Switzer's in the Arroyo Seco.

The many friends of Mrs. W. H. Reynolds of 910 Kenneth road will be sorry to learn she has been quite ill for the past several days.

Mrs. W. K. Parkinson of 315 Mountain street is visiting in San Francisco and Oakland. She expects to be gone about ten days.

Miss Grace Osborn of 406 West Wilson avenue has just recently returned from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. E. R. Furstenfeld, at Van Nuys, Cal.

Messrs Halfhill & Cooper, realtors, have moved from the offices of Borthick Bros., 244 South Brand boulevard and opened offices at 118 West Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fox of 345 North Kenwood street returned recently from San Francisco and Oakland, where they visited with relatives and friends for several days.

Mrs. E. H. Lyman of Santa Barbara and a group of friends motored to Glendale for the week-end with Mrs. Lyman's mother, Mrs. C. S. Parker, of 221 North Central avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Bacon and little daughter, Virginia, are among the newcomers in Glendale. They recently exchanged their property in Van Nuys for a home at 447 West California avenue. Mr. Bacon is connected with the Oakmont Country club.

Miss Carrie Noble was a visitor at Wilson Avenue school Wednesday, and enjoyed the lunch hour with the teachers. Miss Noble is improving rapidly and expects to be able to resume her duties as principal of the school by the beginning of the midwinter term.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harry, who have been visiting for the past week with Mrs. Edith Anker of 326 East Chestnut street, have returned to their home in Alhambra. Mr. and Mrs. Harry were en route to their home in Alhambra from an extensive motor trip in the north, where they spent several weeks at Portland, Ore. Mr. Harry is Mrs. Anker's father.

Henry C. McCoy, young business man of Los Angeles, has moved into one of the Carpenter apartments at 115 South Orange street, for a period of rest and recuperation from business. Mr McCoy is recovering from an accident in which he was injured a short time ago, when the machine in which he was driving up the trail to Mt. Baldy went over an embankment. Although none of his injuries proved serious, he is still suffering from the severe nervous shock.

Arthur Chambers of Los Angeles, former Glendalian, was a visitor in this city yesterday.

Mrs. Homer B. Miller and daughter, Jean, of 434 West Burchett street are spending today with friends in Los Angeles.

Chapter L, P. E. O.

Chapter L, P. E. O., held an all-day meeting and luncheon, Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. C. E. Russell, 332 North Kenwood street. In the absence of the president, Mrs. H. D. Goss, who has gone east to spend the holidays with her parents at Windham, Minn., the vice-president, Mrs. C. D. Lusby, presided over the business session in the morning.

A special guest was Mrs. Eva J. Cunningham, of chapter BA, who was a delegate to the supreme convention at Seattle recently.

Luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. C. E. Russell, and assistants, Mesdames Chas. Farnham, Ina Randolph, Harriet Randall and Ed M. Lee.

The program on the educational fund and study of the constitution was under the direction of Mrs. Emma Burket, of the year book committee. The P. E. O. educational fund was the subject of a paper by Mrs. Bess Miltonberger. Mrs. E. U. Emery conducted the study of the constitution.

A delightful feature of the afternoon was vocal numbers by Miss Elizabeth Mottern, Glendale soprano. Miss Mottern's first group included "Dawn" (Curran) "When Song Is Sweet" (Salter) and "Good-Bye Sweet Day" (Vannah); the second group "Melisande in the Wood" (Goetz) "Under the Lanterns" (Sanderson) and "I Sing to Thee" (Roy Lamont Smith).

The members of the chapter devoted the day to sewing for the Children's hospital, the material furnished and the garments cut out by the Glendale auxiliary to the hospital association.

WOOS BRIDE WITH LOADED SHOTGUN

Chicagoan's Amorous Armored Overtures Get Him One Year in Prison

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Another advocate of the "treat 'em rough" method of courtship has decided that this method of bringing about the capitulation of the fair sex is not all that it is cracked up to be.

Ben Newton, 50, "caveman" wooer, announced this as his opinion after Judge Joseph Burke passed sentence upon him.

Instead of saying it "with flowers," Newton said it with "lead," according to James Major, who arrested Ben.

The officer said that Newton's erstwhile sweetheart, Clara Whitfield, apparently had tired of Newton after a time and had spurned him. This action is said to have enraged Newton to such an extent that he went to his room, secured a double-barrelled shotgun and ammunition and returned to his former fiancee's home, where he began firing at the windows.

The amorous adventurer drew a $100 fine and costs and was placed in the Bridewell for one year to "think it over."

GROW FURNITURE IN BACK GARDEN

Atlanta Designer Has Grove of Bamboo to Supply Wood for Products

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 15. — Brighten up the back yard. The most modern method is to remove the old tin cans and rubbish and plant a furniture garden. Yes, a real furniture garden which is both ornamental and a financial asset.

Perhaps the only furniture garden in this section is owned by O. J. Huie, of Atlanta. Mr. Huie is a consulting engineer for the Southern Bell Telephone company here, a man with a gift for furniture designing.

It so happens that this gentleman has a bamboo grove in his back yard. Bamboo groves are rare things in this country, but Mr. Huie has one that spreads like wildfire. To keep it in bounds he started making it into furniture. Whenever he needs a piece of furniture all he needs to do is chop down a tree, and he has it—f. o. b.

The bamboo was brought from Japan by Dr. and Mrs. El L. Connally and was planted as an experiment to see if it would grow. It did. The bamboo must be cut down each year, otherwise it would spread over the entire city, Mr. Huie explained, for bamboo is the fastest-growing tree in the world.

From his little furniture garden Mr. Huie has plucked a library table, a radio cabinet, chairs and numerous other pieces of furniture. He advises all city folk to follow his example of adorning the back yard.

Patient Returns to Home From Hospital

F. L. Walker of 131 Arden avenue was brought to his home Wednesday from the hospital, where he was taken ten days ago suffering from injuries received in an accident when two machines collided and one went over the curbing and struck him, as he was walking in the vicinity of his home. He is still suffering from an injured hip but rested well following the transfer to his home.

LOSES FEW BALLS GOLFING IN DARK

'Feel' of Follow Through Is Guide to Pellet, Says Eastern Player

DENISON, Ia., Nov. 15.—Golfing a la night on the Denison Golf and Country club's course here may become the custom of the country, as it has been discovered that Milo Smith, runner-up in the city championship, is playing by moonlight.

Smith accomplished the unprecedented feat of shooting the six holes in thirty-three strokes, which is better than the average golfer's card for six holes by the sun's most powerful rays.

His wife accompanied him, acting as his caddie, and starting from the first tee at nine o'clock played the six holes with only the loss of one ball.

The grip on the shaft of his club was his wireless that drected the "pill" in its flight. Smith declared that, while the ball was not visible after he had hit it, he could tell the general direction and distance by the "feel" of the follow through, and that with the exception of one time had little or no trouble in finding the ball.

A request was made of the king of France in 1653, to grant the privilege of 40 years' monopoly of establishing post-boxes in various quarters of Paris.

Country Editor Broke 'Eggs' On Typewriter

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—A New York editor spent much time trying to decipher a recent letter from a country correspondent, which read as follows:

"Dear editor: I am the only man in town with a typewriter, so am in an eggstremely difficult position—the worst in fact in all my eggsperience as a country newspaper eggsecutive.

"Please send a man at once to make repairs to my typewriter.

"I have broken the eggs on it."

The editor rushed a new typebar, with the letter "X" on it, to his contributor.

High Heel Shoes On Golf Course Banned

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Ban against women's high-heel shoes on the municipal golf links at the local park was issued recently by Paul Westcott, commissioner of parks.

"It is simply impossible to keep the course in condition if the women are to be allowed to tramp over the greens with their narrow and high heels,' he said. "They might just as well be on stilts."

THE GLENDALE

"Crinoline and Romance," Viola Dana's newest starring vehicle, now showing at the Glendale Theatre, offers this sprightly little lady in a role far different from anything she has heretofore attempted, providing for her versatile talents a role of a Southern miss, sheltered and secluded from the world, reared under careful supervision of a stern grandfather on his large estates in North Carolina.

When a handsome young man, in the person of Allan, Forrest, comes into this atmosphere, he meets with a none too cordial reception from the girl's father, played by Claude Gillingwater, always a capable actor. From this point the story becomes dramatic. Emmy Lou, as the girl is called, runs away to see "life," later returning with the conclusion that her own home after all offered more happiness. And then comes love.

Education is practically ignored in Albania.

THE GATEWAY

"The Eternal Struggle," a Metro picture directed by Reginald Barker, now playing at the Gateway Theatre, shows Renee Adoree in a new and delightful role. A Reginald Barker production, the story is adapted to the screen from the G. B. Lancaster novel, "The Law Bringers."

The cast includes in addition Barbara La Marr, Earle Williams, Wallace Beery and Pat O'Malley. An ice jam in Bow river, photographed by cameramen suspended over the falls in a steel cage, is one of the pictorial feats seen; others include a roaring blizzard near Banff, a fierce attack by wolves, a wild canoe ride through the rapids of Seymour creek and a dog-team race in the shadow of Mt. Robson.

"The Eternal Struggle" tells a dramatic story of a woman's love, tangled with treachery and culminating in a great rescue sequence.

SOCIETY CIRCUS OPENS TOMORROW

Many Novel Attractions to Be Shown During Two Day Exhibition

Circus day's only twenty-four hours away, that is, the many-ringed society circus that is to take place tomorrow and Saturday at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse on North Central avenue and Lexington drive.

Miss Eva Daniels, who is serving as advance agent of the big event, states that Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, first vice-president of the club, chairman of ways and means, and head ringmaster, promises that this year's circus will far surpass any previous event of the kind in Glendale.

Club women and assistants were busy today with preliminary work, and the club grounds and interior of the clubhouse were fast assuming an attractive appearance for the many novelties planned by the various club officers, committees and sections.

Midway Attracts

Of course the work begun on the club grounds in preparation for the brilliant midway, "The Streets of Cairo," under the direction of Mrs. Max L. Green, curator, and other members of the drama section, attracted the attention and stirred the interest of all passing the club house.

An added attraction of "The Streets of Cairo" was announced this morning as a gentle little pony, loaned by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thorpe of the Oakmont Riding stables. Children visiting the circus afternoons may ride the pony for a small fee.

Besides the many features of the midway already told, Mrs. Green states that there will be five fortune-tellers to entertain the crowds, and that animal lovers will delight in the exhibit of prize cats and kittens by the Glendale Cat club.

Within the clubhouse there will be something interesting on every hand, the various booths and attendants having been given in detail in the Monday edition of The Glendale Evening News.

Special Luncheon

A special luncheon is to be served Friday, under the direction of Mrs. Homer Lockwood, and Mrs. Allan Fairchild is in charge of the chicken dinner to be served Friday night.

On Saturday noon the 300 realtors meeting in Glendale will have luncheon at the clubhouse. The big features of Saturday night will be the dance directed by Mrs. Walter Jones and the awarding of the Ford automobile by Ruth Roland, moving picture star.

Mrs. Montgomery's special announcement today is that all those holding tickets for the circus and desiring to have a chance on the Ford automobile must deposit their ticket stubs in the box on the circus ground.

Hoboes His Way to Harvard University

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 15—With 13 cents in his pocket when he started, Gilbert L. Parks, who hoboed from Oklahoma to Cambridge to attend Harvard college, arrived in this city and received an official welcome from Mayor Quinn.

Parks explained to Mayor Quinn how he made his way from Oklahoma to New York City on 13 cents, but rode into Boston on a train because he feared to shock the delicate sensibilities of persons in and about Boston.

The youth declared Chicago was the first big city he ever was in. He traveled from Chicago to Buffalo working as a deck hand on a lake steamship, and after that came odd jobs along the highway, with lifts from friendly motorists.

Making a little money in New York, Parks thought he had better ride into Boston in style, so he boarded a train.

Parks, who neither smokes nor drinks, was congratulated by the mayor, who told the youth he was bound to succeed.

American Theory of Equality Is Denied

LONDON, Nov. 15—The American Constitution is all wrong, according to Dr. Cyril Burt, president of the psychology section of the British Asociation.

"All men are created unequal," says Dr. Burt.

"In the psychology sense, as distinguished from the political, not only are men created unequal, but the extent of the inequality surpasses anything heretofore conjectured," the Doctor said. "In a survey of 30,000 cases in a London borough it was found that the mental ratio of the children might vary from 50 per cent below normal to 150 per cent above. The brightest child at the age of ten had the mental level of an average child of fifteen. A dullard had the mental level of a child of five."

Bible Is Best Seller in British Islands

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Bible is still the "best seller" in Great Britain.

Statistics made public by the British and Foreign Bible Society show that during 1922 1,101,574 copies of the Bible were sold in England and Wales. This is 317,000 more than were sold in 1921.

In the first three years after the war sales of the Bible in England and Wales fell below the 1,000,000 mark each year. The increase for last year, acording to officials of the society, "points to a revival of Bible reading throughout the country."

COMMENT
That's All

Water and Sanitation
America's Automobiles
Girls, What Others Think
Quality in Immigration

By Gil A. Cowan

With its increasing thousands of people centering in California this state may well consider all reforestration measures which are advocated. It is absolutely essential that watersheds be developed, rather than destroyed, if the great hosts who are coming to this coast are to be provided with drinking water.

Years ago great cities fell in famine and pestilence superinduced by lack of sanitation and inadequate or polluted water supply. They did not realize the cause then, but now we know that water and sanitation are the two factors contributing to the rise or fall of any populous district.

Glendale has water right now for 150,000 people and can develop more, regardless of inference to the contrary published under the signature of one Ben Macomber of the San Francisco Chronicle. Glendale will not be emasculated for lack of water. And as for sanitation this city now has a contract with Los Angeles, the fulfillment of which depends on Glendale voting bonds at an election slated for January 8.

There is no doubt in any Glendalian's mind as to the result. The citizens will assert themselves, sufficiently proud of the accomplishments of this fastest growing city to vote the necessary funds for a sewerage system.

Glendale is a prosperous city This is proved by the large number of automobile owners in our midst. The San Bernardino Sun, speaking of "The Real America" gives some important figures regarding motor car ownership as follows:

"There is ample opportunity for speculation and economic study in statistics compiled by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce revealing that rural America, with 44 per cent of the nation's popuiation, owns 70 per cent of its automobiles, and that in six of the 48 states the number of rural owned cars exceeds the number of cars owned in cities and towns with more than 1,000 population.

"These statistics further reveal that towns having a population from 1000 to 5000 own 20 per cent of the nation's automobiles although they comprise only nine per cent of the total population. The towns in this class average 230 automobiles per 1000 of population, as compared with 127 cars per 1000 population in cities exceeding 6000 in population, and 70 cars per 1000 of population in rural districts, including towns of less than 1000 population.

"Accepting automobile ownership as an accurate barometer of private wealth, these statistics confirm the long-recognized concentration of wealth in communities having a population of between 1000 and 5000 persons, with the average individual wealth decreasing as the population increases or decreases from those limits. The higher standard of living which now prevails and always has prevailed in the reasonably small town may be accounted for by a higher average income than that in communities or rural districts of less population and of a lower cost of living than that prevailing in towns and cities of greater population."

Claim has been made by the producers of a musical show here that Glendale has the most beautiful girls of any southland city. That is an interesting topic, and we are not going to deny the statement—you bet!

Regarding American girls, however, there seems to be some argument which is summarized by The Albany Knickerbocker Press of New York as follows:

"A Danish physical culture expert says that American girls sit around the house too much; they eat too much candy and slouch along in slinky gowns.

"We hope that the Danish gentleman will visit our country clubs; hope he will get out on the golf course and see the American woman swing her clubs; that he will read the accounts of the women's golf championship. He might drop into a business office in any large city and see the women whose brain cells are functioning as reliably as the athletic girl's muscles. The Girl Scouts will teach him something, too. Every school filled with healthy and normal boys and girls will be proof of the morality of the American homes they are part of.

"A walk up Fifth avenue or along Broadway after the matinee will not show him the real American woman. It will not confirm his opinion about the slouch in the slinky gowns, and a visit to the Broadway cabarets will only show him our exotics. The minority is not always right, as Ibsen once proclaimed, but it is frequently so noisy that it can drown out the majority."

"Quality" of immigration is a topic ably discussed by the San Diego Union, which says:

"News that 4000 aliens, landed in America through error after quotas from the countries represented had been exhausted, have been allowed to remain in this country 'on parole,' is enlightening. It throws light on the arbitrary nature of our present immigration restriction, and the need for more constructive standards. These aliens, mostly British, have been allowed to remain because the prospects are that they will make good American citizens. Under strict application of the law, they would be deported.

"The problem is to restrict immigration in quantity, and at the same time to assure the highest possible quality. Our present 3-per-cent rule takes care of the quantity, all right, but has nothing to do with quality.

"Eventually there must be some system of qualitative tests, preferably carried on at the port of origin abroad."

Proves His Title To English Barony Long Unclaimed

R. G. W. BEWICKE-COPLEY

Capt. R. G. W. Bewicke-Copley, son of the late Lady Bewicke-Copley, has, after a long struggle, proved his title to the extinct barony of Cornwall, unclaimed since the death of the last of two nieces of the last incumbent, who died in 1497. The previous male heir was lord high treasurer of England up to his death in 1455.

Carload of Comalt Shipped to Texas

An interested visitor to the plant of the S. W. Brown Company, Inc., this week was John F. McNamara, member of the firm of MsNamara Bros. of Austin, Tex.

Mr. McNamara came to Glendale expressly for the purpose of making a contract for Comalt for the states of Texas and Oklahoma. As a result of his visit, a straight twenty-ton car of Comalt will be shipped at once to the McNamara plant at Austin and distributed from there in that territory.

Mr. McNamara is president of the Carbonated Bottlers' association of the state of Texas, and contracted for Comalt purely on merit of the product.

Glendale's Welfare Chest

"Once for All"

SAVES ANNOYANCE — The Welfare Chest Campaign eliminates 14 drives, tag days and ticket sales. Instead of being called on for contributions on an average of almost once every two weeks during the entire year, you will be called on ONCE AND ONCE ONLY for these 14 organizations.

SAVES MONEY — The Welfare Chest drive eliminates four-fifths of the cost of raising money for philanthropic purposes. The average cost of a small drive is 15 per cent. The Welfare Chest cuts this to approximately 2 per cent. The money you give goes where you want it to go. No paid campaign directors.

SAVES EFFORT — The Welfare Chest allows the member organizations to devote all of their energies to their proper and legitimate fields of activity. Their executives and the citizens who compose their boards of directors and campaign committees do not have to spend months of effort endeavoring to raise funds to carry on their work.

PROTECTS PUBLIC — The Welfare Chest provides responsible supervision of the demands on the people of Glendale for philanthropic purposes. It is the modern way of protecting generous people against extravagant, unwarranted and sometimes even fraudulent demands.

INSURES JUSTICE — The Welfare Chest assures adequate support of worthy organizations and eliminates competitive solicitation between organizations. To each is given his just share. There is no starving to death or struggle for existence by one, while another has more than it needs. And it eliminates the unworthy by turning a searchlight upon them.

PREVENTS DUPLICATION — The Welfare Chest prevents duplication of work and overlapping of effort. Co-operation of all the agencies through the Central Welfare Council office all year around will secure a new efficiency in Glendale's social welfare program, with an immeasurable broadening of service and value to the community.

INSIDE DOPE ON COAST QUARREL

McCarthy-Williams Imbroglio Over League Prexy Revealed at Last

By F. A. GRAHAM
Of The Evening News Staff.

The Big Five and Little Three are at it again. It looks like those jolly playmates of the Pacific Coast league had quit playing in each other's back yards.

They all went over to Catalina Island to exercise their voting privileges. The Little Three—Vernon, Sacramento and San Francisco—voted for William H. McCarthy to remain president of the league. The Big Five—Los Angeles, Seattle, Portland, Salt Lake and Oakland—stuck out their tongues at Mr. McCarthy and went over in a corner to play with Harry Williams. Furthermore, they all voted for him and now the league headquarters will be in Los Angeles, where the new president lives. So say the Big Five.

Busted Store Teeth

But it would appear that somebody had busted their store teeth on some of Mr. Wrigley's chewing wax. The Little Three started in to cut themselves a piece of cake and invited the Big Five to try to get a crumb. The Little Triplets nearly strangled when the Big Five declined the invite, intimating that they didn't want the big crumb, and elected Williams president instead.

The quarters where those jolly playmates met had to be fumigated plenty after church was out. McCarthy addressed some remarks to Williams that caused the seismograph keepers to wonder where the earthquake was. When Williams walked into the meeting McCarthy told him he needed fresh air and exercise and invited him to get it by jumping off a tall building. For a few hysterical moments prominent members of the Authors of Epitaphs society thought sure business was going to pick up. McCarthy denounced Williams as an interloper, using some of the most magnificent gestures ever seen at Catalina since chewing gum was discovered there.

Ignores McCarthy

But Williams ignored McCarthy and calmly did his stuff, accepted the presidency with becoming modesty, closed the meeting, and went for another ride in a glass-bottom boat. Somebody told him that spearmint grows in the marine gardens, and he wants to pluck some.

Mr. McCarthy is still in friendly hands, but the fingers are all thumbs. He simply ignores the Big Five, and tells 'em to be on their way. Now he's getting a stiff neck trying to ignore which way they all go. Those big boys certainly have disturbing ways.

Headline in paper says "Little Three Rally Behind McCarthy." Sure. And they'll stand behind him, too. At least until he caves in. They are all up in the attic now, thinking up some good answers to spring at Chicago when the board of arbitration of the minor leagues meets next month.

Mac says Big Five are a bunch of clowns. They say Mac is supplying the circus with a menagerie by making a monkey of himself.

Little Three said Big Five couldn't get to first base even, but the big boys put Williams in as a pinch hitter to bat for McCarthy. McCarthy has been getting his shoes polished all summer, so the Big Five want him to take a long walk to show off what a big shine the Little Triplets have been supporting. McCarthy says he'll fry the Big Five in their own grease. Big Five say they'll splatter and blister the cook's nose, too. Those jolly boys! Ain't they got amusement?

Essick Gets Mad

And, just to be sociable, Bill Essick, manager of the Vernon team, got all mad and asked waivers on nineteen of the best losers in the league. He says they need life. That may be a trifle severe. Twenty years ought to be enough. The Vernon club must have done its training in Germany last spring. They went down in the percentage column like marks in Wall street. They finished the season so low that the whole club could walk under a snake's rib without making Mr. Snake arch his back.

Four months ago Bill Essick was hailed as the "Sage of Grand Ridge," wherever that is. Now he's the grand sausage of the ridge, sage and all. One more year like this one and Bill will be promoted to managing a team of pick and shovels.

Vernon rooters were sadly mistaken this year. But 'twas ever so in life. Thus are we often betrayed by those we love best. When last heard of, Spark McCluskey was reported to have been noticed checking his hat at the end of the El Segundo wharf But there is one consolation—no matter what happens to Vernon, it will be an improvement.

McCarthy Laughing

Next tea party will be in old Chi. Jack Keefe will apply for the presiding officer's chair. McCarthy says he's laughing, but something whispers that the Catalina fog took all the curl out of his chuckles.

Mr. Williams should make a good president for the Pacific coast league. He had to quit a good job as sports writer for the papers, but he will get $10,000 a year at his new job, which is nearly as much as sports writers get and besides will have a title to his name. That's worth something and ought to make up the difference in wages. If not, some of us higher priced writers will probably chip in and buy ourselves a handkerchief to cry into over his misfortune.

DEMPSEY WILLING TO BATTLE WILLS

Champion May Be Matched to Box Brown Panther on Present Trip East

By DAVIS WALSH
For International News Service

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Backstairs gossip today has it that Jack Dempsey, the well known prize fighter, has thought better of his personal animosity toward Harry Wills and is ready to agree to a bout with the chocolate soldier when he, Dempsey, arrives in the east next month.

At the same time it is whispered that Wills' man of business, Paddy Mullins, has been beguiled into looking with a modicum of favor upon Tex Rickard as a possible promoter of the enterprise, if any, Mullins previously having quoted Mr. Rickard at a very low estimate.

Rickard's Envoy Hopeful

It is said that an emissary of Rickard visited with Mullins yesterday and returned with a hopeful expression across the bridge of his nose. This was taken to mean that the conversation proved of general interest to Mullins.

At any rate, it is altogether probable that the latter's conversation about Rickard being taboo is out the window like an empty flask. In fact, it is claimed that Wills is not only ready to meet the champion under Rickard's auspices but probably will step out with George Godfrey, another negro, at the Garden by way of preliminary build-up to the big business ahead.

Just whether the enterprise will ever be the subject of definite discussion is not even known to Rickard himself. He is merely placing his finger in the pie while waiting for the custard to form. The bout must have official tolerance and, to date, it has received only the official run around.

Gibbons Bout Planned

If held, it would be one of those summer attractions in order that cash and the customers may be made the subject of a legal separation with pleasing rapidity. Two other fistic tidbits are in the oven under slow fire. They are the proposed revival of the Dempsey-Gibbons and Dempsey-Firpo sorties.

The Gibbons business is already in the bag and will be uncovered in due time. Gibbons' date is for late spring, at some local outdoor arena, with the tentative details to be settled when Dempsey arrives in Chicago to join Jack Kearns. A conference with Eddie Kane, Gibbons' manager, will follow, it is said, and when it is over, all that will remain is for Mr. Rickard to step out with a bid and the customers step in with the money.

Washington's Huskies Invade Bruins' Lair

PORTLAND, Nov. 15.—On what they hope will be a triumphant tour, the University of Washington football special, carrying players and more than 100 rooters, arrived here today en route to meet the Golden Bears at Berkeley on Saturday.

Twenty-nine players, a coaching staff of five led by Enoch Bagshaw, student managers and rooters, comprised the nine-coach special which pulled into Union station early today and departed immediately afterward.

Washington rooters are in high spirits. They acclaim their team as the best since the halcyon days of old Gil Dobie, and feel that the Purple and Gold has an even chance to bag the Bear in the classic struggle at Berkeley.

Johnny O'Donnell to Box Phil Salvadore

Johnny O'Donnell, Mike Collins' St. Paul Irish lightweight, will box the main event at the Vernon coliseum next Tuesday night. Matchmaker Hayden Wadhams has pitted O'Donnell against Phil Salvadore, who has been the lightweight headliner at Vernon since the new Doyle arena was opened.

There was some demand for a return match between Jimmy Delaney and Bert Colima but that will come later. Then there was talk of Colima and Jack Reeves. "Pepper" Martin and Salvadore had the date originally but Martin was not in shape when he arrived yesterday from New York. "Pepper" may box the winner of the Salvadore-O'Donnell bout.

The Glendale High school varsity team stacks up against a stiff set of foes tomorrow when Covina sends her pigskin warriors to battle the locals for the championship of the Central league. The Covina boys are admitted to be dangerous at every stage of the game, but the Glendale team carry a few tricks of their own that will be used in repelling the invaders in tomorrow's game at Moyse field.

The game starts at 3 p. m.

THIRD BALL TEAM IN CITY'S COLORS

Glendale Merchants Club Is Reorganized with Strong List of Players

The Glendale Athletic club has actively entered the base ball field and a third team is to play under Glendale colors this winter. In addition to teams in the Triple A and San Fernando valley leagues, "Val" Viall of the Athletic club has reorganized the old Glendale Merchants club and expects to play some strong team next Sunday.

He has as a nucleus for a club such players as "Slim" Harris, Acosta, E. Harrison, G. Harrison, Flanders, "Lefty" Bacon, formerly of the K. C. team, who will do the hurling, Morgan, Falkner and Easly. In addition he is dickering with several other well known players and experts to have them with the local team when the umpire shouts "Play ball!" next Sunday.

May Use New Park

An attempt is being made to secure permission from Frank Kerwin to use the new grounds at Park avenue and San Fernando road when the Triple A team is playing away from home. If this is not accomplished the home lot will be the old grounds at Park avenue or in Verdugo.

The team is working out every afternoon at the Park avenue lot and expects to be in good shape when the semi-pro season gets into full swing.

Dempsey Leaves L. A. for European Trip

Jack Dempsey has left Los Angeles, not to return until he sees Europe again, and Jack Kearns will be going shortly. They have cleaned up their real estate business in this climate and are heading east to arrange for two fights next summer before taking a liner across the sea.

Bears May Play Navy at Pasadena January 1

BERKELEY, Nov. 15.—Coach Andy Smith of the Golden Bears may play Navy at Pasadena on New Year's day, but it will be the last post-season game the California varsity will play so long as Smith is at the head of athletics. Smith is said to have expressed these views to friends.

The mangosteen is one of the most luscious of tropical fruits, but is very difficult to cultivate except under the most favorable conditions.

HUSKIES HUNTING FOR BRUIN'S PELT

Washington Team to Invade Berkeley for Game With Andy Smith's Boys

By 'DOC' McGILLIS
Of The Evening News Staff.

The eyes of Pacific coast football fandom are now focused on next Saturday's game at Berkeley between Andy Smith's California Bears and the University of Washington Huskies. Neither team has been defeated this year, the winner being practically certain of the 1923 conference championship, which means the New Year's game with the Navy at Pasadena.

In spite of the fact that Coach Enoch Bagshaw's men walked over the U. S. C. Trojans in a very much more decided manner than did the Bears, the coming contest is doped to be a fifty-fifty proposition, with the team getting the first break favored to win. If the game were to be played at Seattle on Washington's sandy field and with a Washington crowd in attendance, the order of things would be reversed, but as long as the Blue and Gold squad from Berkeley will be performing on the turf in their own back yard they will have an even chance of victory.

Bears In Training

After giving his boys a day's rest following the U. S. C. battle, Andy Smith settled down to work again Tuesday getting the eleven set for the invasion from the north. Every man was in good shape and feeling fine, last Saturday's victory having given them back their confidence.

While Smith is busy in Berkeley, Bagshaw cannot be said to be loafing with his boys in the far north. Realizing that a victory over California will please the University of Washington in a place which it hasn't held in the football world since the days of Gil Dobie, every man has been pointed for the Bruins since their 22 to 0 defeat of U. S. C. several weeks ago, and they are as determined for victory as are Andy Smith's followers. What Tesreau, Ziel, Wilson & Co. will do to that California line remains to be seen Saturday.

ASK 100 MILLION FOR BOULDER DAM

Next Congress to Be Urged to Appropriate Money for River Project

By MICHAEL F. DACEY
For International News Service

DENVER, Nov. 15.—The sixty-eighth Congress of the United States, convening next December, will appropriate in the neighborhood of $100,000,000 for the gigantic Boulder dam project on the Colorado River, if recommendations of the United States Reclamation Service are adopted.

Plans have been perfected in the Denver offices of the Reclamation Service for construction of the dam itself, which will cost between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000, and also for a power project in connection with the dam that will cost a similar sum.

According to F. E. Weymouth, chief engineer for the Reclamation Service, who has been consulting with his board of engineers on designs and cost estimates, the proposed Boulder Canon Dam and power plant would make possible:

Aid Imperial Valley

Protection of life and property in the Imperial Valley through the control of floods on the Colorado river.

Reclamation of some 2,000,000 acres of land below the dam.

Reclamation of approximately 4,000,000 acres above the dam.

Development of a continuous flow of 800,000 to 1,000,000 kilowatts of electricity — providing power for industries in California, Nevada, Arizona and southwestern Utah.

Storage for irrigation and power purposes of 34,000,000 acre-feet of water.

The repayment of the tremendous cost of the project to the Government would come through the sale of electric energy in a reasonably short time, it is believed.

To Divert River

In describing the obstacles to be overcome in the huge project, Engineer Weymouth pointed out that the waters of the Colorado would have to be diverted before work on the dam could be started.

"We would have to build a railroad into the canon," he said, "and then erect our camp and construction plan, a considerable task in itself."

By harnessing the raging torrents of the Colorado River at certain periods of the year and conserving the energies of the stream when it is at low ebb, it is believed the Boulder Canon project would add many millions to the wealth of the Southwest.

Injured When 'Dead' Beef Kicks His Hand

SCAPPOOSE, Ore., Nov. 15.—While A. A. McKay was dressing a beef, the dead animal gave a final kick, jarring the knife against McKay's arm, cutting a vein. It was necessary to take seven stitches in the wound.

DONLIN CREW TO BATTLE ANAHEIM

Manager Kerwin Out to Wipe Last Sunday's Defeat Off the Map

Mike Donlin and his crew of ball tossers will endeavor to erase the blot on their escutcheon placed there last Sunday by the Palms-Culver City aggregation, who played the local team to a 7-to-7 tie, when they meet Jimmy Hefferon's Anaheim crowd at the latter's home grounds next Sunday.

Manager Frank Kerwin, with such players as "Babe" Herman, Mickey O'Brien, the two Crandall brothers, "Doc" and Arnold, and Manusch of Omaha on his pay roll, figures to cop the bunting in the triple A league, and their failure to annex the opener last Sunday was somewhat of a surprise to the local fans. "Doc" Crandall, playing second base had two pieces of hard luck in the eighth inning, when two slow grounders in passing over the base line struck foot marks in soft dirt and took bad hops. In this stanza the Palms outfit scored four runs without a base hit.

Quinn Hurts Ankle

Both Quinn and Arnold Crandall, who worked for Donlin last Sunday, looked mighty sweet to the fans. Quinn was going fine until he hurt his ankle in the fifth, and Crandall pitched good ball. His hook was breaking nicely.

The opening game in the Glendale ball yard at Park and San Fernando road will be staged November 25, against the strong Shell Oil outfit with Art Fairbanks on the mound. Kerwin thinks, however, that he has the sweetest bunch of hitters in the loop, and does not believe that there is a twirler in the circuit who can stop his men.

Other games in the league scheduled for Sunday are:

Sawtelle and Shell Oil at Signal Hill.

Union Tool and Palms-Culver City at Palms.

Wilmington and San Pedro at San Pedro.

Old Buttonball Tree At Yale Still Lives

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 15.—While the Washington elm at Cambridge has fallen, the old buttonball tree at Elm and College streets, just outside the fence of New Haven Green, still flourishes, as it has done, according to records, since long before Washington reviewed Yale students on the Green and then rode away toward Cambridge under an escort at the head of which Noah Webster, afterward author of the dictionary, marched playing lustily on a fife, back in the Spring of 1776.

Bearing marks of several amputated limbs, the old tree is believed to be good for many years yet if the city forester continues to pay adequate attention to it.

Jap Grappler Ends Training for Miller

UNEMPLOYED, DRIVEN BY HUNGER, RIOT IN BERLIN

Scores Killed In Disturbances As Starving People Stage Outbreaks

"Green police" trying to quell riot of unemployed before Berlin city hall by loading leaders into patrol wagon

While food and unemployment riots are occurring almost hourly in the main centers of Germany the most serious outbreaks have been before the city hall in Berlin, where food and employment officials are quartered. Scores of persons have been killed and hundreds injured in the recent disturbances there. Both the unemployment situation and the food conditions are growing worse steadily as Germany plunges on to destruction while leaders try to save her.

Woman of 75 Weds Seventh Husband, 63

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Mrs. Jane Rebecca Williams, 75 years old, has married her seventh husband at Portsmouth.

Her seventh spouse is 63. Their romance developed from a meeting in a street car. She is proud of the number of her ventures in matrimony and wears all seven of her wedding rings.

When on the nest the mallard will, if disturbed, often feign being wounded.

Recommends New Scales for Postoffice

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 15.—Recommendation that the postoffice authorities purchase new scales for the protection of patrons has been made by Charles F. Hayden, state sealer of weights and measures, who has been making extended investigations and finds that Uncle Sam is guilty of giving short weight in weighing mail and parcel post packages.

SHRINERS STAGE BRILLIANT PARTY

Hayselden's Heart Misses as Suspicious Bottle Is Found in Pocket

The big stag affair held last night by the Glendale Shrine club at Hahn's auditorium, 109 North Brand boulevard, under the direction of Percy J. Hayselden, with over 150 local and visiting Shriners present, proved to be a hilarious affair and climaxed with a raid by the local constabulary.

Of course, it was just a joke, arranged between President D. Ripley Jackson of the club and his brother-in-law, Chief John D. Fraser of the Glendale police department—but Shriner Hayselden was anxious for a moment or so, when an ominous and insinuative bottle was withdrawn by the stern hand of the law from his hip pocket.

Case of "Old Crow"

Other pleasantries marked the course of events, including tickets on a case of "Old Crow"—which, upon being won by C. E. Jones, proved to be a chicken coop containing an aged Rhode Island Red rooster, that quickly established the fact that Volstead had not removed his crow.

The athletic feature of the evening was a wrestling match between Joe Polk and Charlie Olson, which ended in a draw, though it appeared that Polk was in the better form.

A number of boxing bouts rounded out a most enjoyable program, which was followed by a buffet dinner. Smokes, eats and entertainment were arranged by a committee comprising Percy J. Hayselden, chairman, and H. C. Vandewater and Robert McKenzie.

MARRIED COUPLE SILENT 6 YEARS

Words Finally Exchanged in Desertion Proceedings, But Hubby Loses

LONDON, Nov. 15.—A silence between a married couple of nearly six years was broken when they spoke to each other during desertion proceedings at Marylebone Police Court here.

The husband was summoned for desertion, and his wife, in her testimony, declared that though they had occupied the same living rooms her husband had doggedly maintained silence after a "tiff" they had had nearly six years ago. "If he wanted anything he would write on a piece of paper for it. We have sat in the parlor for two and three hours at a stretch and he has never spoken a word," she declared.

The offending husband tried to cross-examine his wife, but as her answers were confined to "Yes" and "No" the magistrate gave up in despair and ordered the husband to contribute $3 weekly to his wife's maintenance.

Zoo Is Big Feature of Great Circus Here Today

Here Are Camels From India With Golden Brothers' Wild Animal Circus Playing Glendale This Afternoon and Evening

Dja see the parade? Circus devotees will be sure to enjoy the innovation the Golden Brothers' Big Four Ring Trained Wild Animal Circus are offering on its visit to Glendale today at 2 and 7 p. m., instead of the usual circus acts, besprinkled with good, bad and indifferent. The Golden Brothers have an exclusive wild animal circus and the educational value of such an undertaking cannot be overstressed. A species from every clime of the world is included in their mammoth collection and nearly every one (except the very ferocious) have succumbed to man's will and take part in the two and one-half hours' performance.

If you are not attending this afternoon, be early for the night performance.

A trip through the big double menagerie is like a visit to the ark; on each side are lined cages of wild and strange beasts, correctly listed and with their scientific names.

It is worth a trip to see the white camel that has just arrived from India. This strange and holy beast, abroad, seems quite at home beneath the canvas roof. In fact, he seemed immediately attracted to Jumbo the Second, now the largest elephant in the world. Jumbo weighs two tons more than his namesake, and towers above the other animals of the Zoo, as does the Woolworth building above New York's City Hall. The white camel, evidently sensing Jumbo came from India, immediately introduced himself, and the result seems to be a permanent friendship

Gil A. Cowan Goes on Vacation Outing

Gil A. Cowan, of the editorial department of The Glendale Evening News, left today for a vacation. He expects to visit a number of cities in the southern section of the state. Mr. Cowan's comment column will continue to appear, the United States mails being willing, for he will keep in touch with the office daily by mail and telegraph.

SCIOTS HEAD FOR SAN DIEGO MEET

Band of 45 Members Goes From Glendale Pyramid to Convention

Adding to the host of Sciots from every city and county in California, now trekking into San Diego by boat, by train, by auto, including groups from Los Angeles, Fresno, Santa Barbara, San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley and a score of other points, with special trains emptying hundreds hourly and even the steamer Harvard chartered, a special car of the Santa Fe will convey forty-five members of the Sciots band, Glendale Pyramid No. 39, to the annual state convention of the Ancient Egyptian Order of Sciots, now in progress there, announces G. O. Russell, manager. With the musicians will go their families. They will parade up Brand boulevard at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, leaving the corner of Brand and Broadway by auto for Los Angeles, where they will entrain at 3 o'clock, arriving in the convention city at 6:30 o'clock.

They were preceded to San Diego yesterday afternoon by the Sciot vanguard, comprising Toparch H. M. Bennett and the three other delegates of the local pyramid: Ralph Murdy, Richard D. Kinley and Arthur W. Gregg. A number of other members left yesterday, motoring to the far-south city.

Queen Goes Along

Miss Olive Middleton, crowned queen of the recent circus, went with the delegates, chaperoned by their wives. This honor, it will be remembered, was promised the winner of the beauty contest.

Heading the Sciots band will be Chief John D. Fraser of the Glendale police department, drum major. The band will be conducted by William Osterman and will compete Saturday afternoon in class A of the band contest, matched against the crack bands of the state, playing as its first number "Stars and Stripes Forever," by Sousa, and as its second number "Morning, Noon and Night in Vienna," the Carl Fischer edition, arranged by Tobani.

Costumed in vivid Egyptian style made-in-Glendale uniforms with bright purple fez, shirt and pantaloons, with white stock, tie, sash and leggings, the members of the Glendale Sciots band will "knock 'em dead," according to Manager Russell.

State Highway Board to Hasten Road Work

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 15.—The State Highway Commission in future will hold weekly meetings, alternating between Sacramento, San Francisco and Los Angeles, with a view to letting local road contracts and hastening construction.

Work will begin on December 17 on the first unit of the Truckee River highway, from Truckee to Boca, it was announced at the offices of the commission.

Giant Vertebrate Is Unearthed In Oregon

OREGON CITY, Ore., Nov. 15.—What remains of Paul Bunyan's Blue Ox is believed to have been removed from the river near here by a steam dredge. The skull of a mammoth vertebrate was pulled up in thirty feet of water. It had two gigantic horns and the distance between the eye sockets was eighteen inches. The skull weighed about 100 pounds.

K. C. CLAIMS MANY SPORTING TITLES

'Little World Series' Latest Addition to List of Championships

By W. F. SULLIVAN
For International News Service

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 15. — Championships, like poker chips, have no steady home, but Kansas City today is harboring its quota of those who stand foremost in the ranks of sportdom.

The latest acquisition to the long list of titles was added by the Kansas City Blues, champions of the American Association Baseball league in 1923, when they won the "little world series" from the Baltimore Orioles, champions of the International league.

Then, too, not many days ago youth had its day in one of those events we often see scheduled as youth versus experience, when Harlan Fengler, just out of his teens, stepped out of his front door and entered the speedway bowl for 250 miles of a grinding race behind the wheel of a motor car.

Defeats Veterans

A couple of hours later he returned home, not only having defeated a field of the world's best drivers, but with the added distinction of establishing a new world's speed record for the distance. The youth drew away from the field in the final laps of the grind and came in first, with an average of 113.4 miles per hour.

All records for distances ranging from 1 to 100 miles "fell by the boards," speaking literally and otherwise, when John Branson, who had just reached the age of manhood, in his first professional race came in ahead of 12 others in the national championship motorcycle race here last September. Branson's speed averaged 99.7 miles per hour for 100 miles.

Aside from these laurels adorning the municipal brow of this city, claim also is laid to having a women's golf champion, a champion three-cushion billiard player, the national amateur basketball champions and the national high school basketball champions.

Takes Golf Title

Miss Miriam Burns, local lass, student at Northwestern university, holds the Western Women's golf championship by virtue of her victory at the tournament on the Exmoor Country Club links, in Chicago. Miss Burns also was a dangerous contender in the national tournament held recently.

The national amateur basketball championship has been held by teams from this city for some time. It was won again this year by a team representing the Kansas City Athletic club.

Tiff Denton, three-cushion billiard champion, also recognizes Kansas City as his legal address and represents this city when he chalks his cue in the ivory-ball contests.

Across the Kaw river the other twin of the Kansas cities won the national high school basketball title in Chicago last spring, when they eliminated with ease all of the schools entered from other parts of the country.

The city also has many titles in other lines, but modestly mentions merely its sport supremacy in one writing, as it does not like to "blow its horn too much."

Firebreaks to Guard Grove of Redwoods

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 15.—Firebreaks to safeguard the famous grove of redwoods in Sonoma county, known as the Bohemian grove, will be constructed by the State Board of Forestry, but the Bohemian club of San Francisco will pay all the costs, it was announced today by State Forester M. B. Pratt.

The grove for decades has been the theatre of the annual "high jinks" of the club and has been visited by scores of travelers of world reputation.

ATLANTA PRISON EDITOR RELEASED

Judge Decides Four Terms of Four Years Were Served Concurrently

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 15.—The gates of the Atlanta federal prison were thrown open recently to George C. Chatterton, physician-editor-prisoner, known throughout the nation as editor of "Good Words," the official organ of prison inmates, and he walked out to freedom.

Chatterton, Oxford university student and graduate in medicine, was sentenced to serve four years on each of four counts alleging forgery. The District of Columbia judge who passed sentence failed to specify the manner in which the four sentences should be served.

If served separately the total term would have been 16 years, but Judge Samuel H. Sibley of the Atlanta federal court, following decisions made many times in the past, ruled that in the absence of specific terms in the original sentence it must be construed that the four counts had been satisfied concurrently.

Quick Replacement of Plate Glass Is Made

Last Saturday evening a driver of an auto from Eagle Rock jumped the curb at Harvard and Brand boulevard at the Monarch building and was only able to stop his car after smashing into and through a large plate-glass in the Greenleaf Drug store.

James H. Garnsey, of the New York Plate Glass Insurance Co., was notified Monday morning, and at noon the same day a new plate was completely set from Los Angeles by his order. Mr. Garnsey is noted in Glendale for his quick service in the replacement of plate-glass under his company's policies, his clients say.

Ban Smoking Round Gasoline Stations

BAKERSFIELD, Nov. 15.—Smoking near gasoline and other combustibles at public service stations thirty days hence will subject the offender to a maximum fine of $300 or ninety days in jail, or both, according to the service station ordinance passed by the city council.

The great majority of service station operators favored the enactment of the ordinance, said Councilmen Baer and Griffith.

AUXILIARY SEEKS AID FROM CHEST

Branch of Legion Cares for Welfare of Veterans and Families

The American Legion Auxiliary, in asking for a place in the Glendale Welfare Chest, has a splendid record of service during the past year to back up its claim for consideration.

The work they are doing should be work of the whole community, but it has been entrusted in their hands—pledged to look after the welfare of the World War veterans and their families. A few of the following facts from their report will give some idea of the scope of their work: Visits to hospitals, giving out of second-hand clothing, aid to wives of ex-service men, distribution of candies, fruits and other comforts to men at Sawtelle, Golden State hospital, etc., serving of hot lunches to disabled veterans at the California Hut. This is a line of endeavor that deserves the support of Glendale people who are in a position to give to those less fortunate than themselves.

Secures Signatures On Maccabee Charter

A. B. Jensen, deputy great commander of the Maccabees, accompanied by A. J. Primeaux, district manager of the Pasadena district, was in Glendale yesterday signing up the men whose names are to be placed on the charter of the new Maccabee tent that is being organized in Glendale.

New members are applying for membership in such numbers, Mr. Jensen stated, that he expects to have his plans for the institution of the tent perfected in time to hold the ceremonies here late this month. The degree team from Los Angeles will be on hand to aid in the work, and a banquet will follow the initiation.

Urges Participation of All Glendale Parents in Education Week Exercises

A most fitting introduction for "American Educational Week," to be nationally celebrated next week, was the address given yesterday afternoon by Superintendent Richardson D. White at the meeting of the Glendale Parent-Teachers' association federation in the Chamber of Commerce hall.

Opening with the plea that all Glendale parents participate in this national observance by visiting Glendale's schools Wednesday November 21, which has been designated as visiting day, Mr. White discussed briefly constructive criticism of the public schools.

He mentioned four popular lines of criticism; first, that there are too many subjects taught in the public schools; second, that as a result of trying to do too much, our results are superficial; third, that there are too many children in school too long a time; and fourth, the public schools cost too much.

Pupils Better Today

In replying briefly to these four points Mr. White stated that tests and examinations have proven that pupils of today have fundamentals better than pupils of years ago. There is one exception to this statement he said, that being in parsing.

As for the public schools trying to do too much, Mr. White stated that today the schools have courses to suit students instead of making pupils suit the subjects taught.

In answer to the third criticism, that there are too many children in school too long a time, he said that this view was held only by parents who wish children to be earning salaries and by employers.

Finally as to the criticism that the public schools cost too much, he said this was not so, for, according to figures the wealth of the United States is amply able to support its school system.

Tells Week's Plans

In carrying on the local observance of "National Education Week" the Parent-Teacher associations have been asked to have speakers for the week, pastors of the city are to deliver educational sermons, the theaters are to have educational slides and four-minute speakers, and the newspapers are to publish appropriate news stories by Mrs. E. B. Moore, L. T. Rowley, Mattison B. Jones and educational heads and essays by pupils of Glendale schools.

Mrs. E. B. Moore, president, presided at the meeting and introduced Mrs. William Crawford, who reported on the membership, and Mrs. H. V. Henry, who spoke briefly on program plans.

Mrs. Moore emphasized the present welfare chest movement, and R. Ernest Tucker talked on Community Service.

WORKERS TO WIN IN CLUB CONTEST

Extra Effort in Next Eight Days Boosts Figures In Prize Totals

By J. A. MALCOLM
Salesmanship Club Manager

Did you see the standing of the club members in The Glendale Evening News greater circulation campaign Wednesday? Did you notice the big possibilities for scores of the present club members to come into the campaign and win prizes worth thousands of dollars?

If you did not notice any of these things, then you have overlocked a chance that may never come to you again. Why, the largest number of credits the leading club members have represent so few subscriptions that it would be no trick at all for some live worker to jump in and top the list. Present club members, those who wish to win, and who really mean business, have the best chance of all to cinch a big prize by doing their best work now.

First Period Important

The first period of the campaign ends Saturday, November 24. After that date the subscriptions lose about one-third of their voting value. This positively means that never again after the close of the first period will you receive as many credits for the subscriptions as you will up to November 24. Those who hold back subscriptions waiting for more credits to be given may as well drop out of the race right now, for they are only losing their time. Seven hundred credits are given on a three months' subscription during the first period and only 500 credits are given for the same subscriptions during the second period, and 300 credits for the same subscription during the last period. In view of this fact it will be to the interest of every one of the club members to do their best work during the first period if they want to win.

Go After Subscribers

If you have entered the campaign make up your mind that you are going to be a big winner. Go after the subscriptions with a determination that will show your friends you are in the race to win and that you would appreciate their support, and if you show a willingness to help yourself you will be surprised to see the many subscriptions that will come to you without asking for them.

Everybody loves to help a winner, and those who do the best work during the first period will stand the best chance of winning the grand capital prizes, so make up your mind that you are going to hit the ball during the remaining few days of the first period. The matter rests with you as to which one of the prizes you will win.

LEVIATHAN SETS DOCKING RECORD

Huge U. S. Liner Clears From English Port Within Twenty-six Hours

Breaking of a world's record by the United States liner Leviathan is reported by Frank Booth of 111 South Kenwood street, whose nephew, Norman Owen, arrived in New York aboard her November 3 and is en route to Glendale via the Southern Pacific, arriving tomorrow noon, November 16.

In and out of port in twenty-six hours is the neat record stacked up by the Leviathan. Docking at Southampton at 10 o'clock the morning of October 27, 1500 baggage-smashers, stevedores and women seized her so industriously that at one minute before noon the next day she set sail again for America.

In fact, so prompt was her getaway that one of the ship's barbers and two passengers who had motored down from London arrived at the wharf to find her in the fairway and were obliged to take after the mighty liner in a launch.

With Mr. Owen is arriving his bride. They were married in England October 20, 1923, according to Mr. Booth, and are coming to Glendale to settle down and make it their permanent home, becoming American citizens.

Horsewhipped Woman, Charge Against Actor

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 15.—Bruised and weak from a whipping alleged to have been administered with a riding crop in the hands of S. Chapman, said to be a motion picture actor, in Padre court in Hollywood, Mrs. Mary R. Hoyt yesterday swore out a warrant against Chapman charging assault and battery. City Prosecutor Friedlander, who issued the complaint, asked Chapman be held on $2,000 bail and placed in the psychopathic ward at the general hospital for investigation.

ADVOCATE STUDY FOR REALTY MEN

National Association Favors University Courses as Aid to Profession

A resume of the educational standards recently set up by the National Association of Real Estate boards at their conference with business and educational leaders at Madison, Wis., was given at yesterday's noon luncheon of the Glendale Realty board by George D. McDill of the educational committee, who declared that the conference:

1.—Adopted for recommendation to schools of commerce and vocational courses nationally a two-year course in real estate education along strictly vocational lines but comprehensive in content.

2.—Agreed upon the suitability for inclusion in college curricula of courses in real estate and allied subjects sufficient to constitute a college major in real estate.

Huge Economic Factor

"When a branch of American business having to deal with an economic factor amounting to $146,000,000,000, the largest single factor in American economic life," declared Mr. McDill, "takes upon itself in conjunction with educational leaders the task of setting up an educational curriculum for the men in the business and those who will enter it, the step is of decided significance.

"Deans of American colleges and universities, heads of the united Y. M. C. A. schools, representatives of the Institute for Research in Land Economics and Public Utilities, together with officers and leaders of the National Association of Real Estate boards, took part in the discussion culminating in the above platform. They recommend as a standard two year course the following:

Schedule of Courses

First Year — First semester, Real estate practice; real estate laws; business economics. Second semester: Real estate selling; real estate transfers and conveyances; real estate finance.

Second Year—First semester, Building construction and design; principles of land economics; real estate office organization and management; real estate valuations and appraisals; an elective to be chosen from the following group: business law, city planning, problems in appraising, fundamentals of salesmanship, fundamentals of advertising, business psychology, corporation law, property insurance, practical speaking, business letters and reports, elements of finance, business organization and executive training.

DATE FOR DANCE SET BY SENIORS

Brilliant Decorations Will Transform Gymnasium Into Fairy Bower

The seniors of the Glendale union high school have selected Wednesday, November 28, as the date for their annual ball. It will be given in the girls' gymnasium, which will be transformed into autumn brilliancy by leaves and bright paper chrysanthemums, in keeping with the spirit of Thanksgiving.

Theodore Haig, president of the class, is working hard to make the affair a success. The following committees have been appointed to assist:

Decorations—Catherine Stoffl, Sarah Allen, Hugh Weaver, Irvin Carver and Arlin McCormack.

Refreshments—Vesta Morrow, Evelyn Curren, Dante La Franchi and Harwin Mann.

Program—Sarah Chandler, Dorothy Houston, Doris Osmun and George McCawley.

Music—Lois Naudain, Winifred Parker, Lucile Allen and Harold Jones.

Invitations—Margaret Longley and Mary Langley.

Floor—Leslie Hatch, Thomas Woods and Lee Payne.

Michiganders to Hold Thanksgiving Party

Announcement is made that a Michiganders' Thanksgiving party will be held under the auspices of the Michigan Society of Southern California, on Friday night, November 16, at the Music Arts hall, 233 South Broadway, Los Angeles.

The affair is open to all former residents of Michigan and their friends. A real surprise program has been arranged for, which will be followed by dancing.

Exchange Club Favors Jackson for C. C. Post

Members of the Exchange club went on record yesterday at their regular weekly meeting in Jensen's Egyptian Village as endorsing the candidacy of Captain D. Ripley Jackson, president of the club, for the office of director of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, for which he has been nominated.

The election is to be held November 27, and nineteen candidates will be balloted upon.

America's Womanhood Aids In Civilization's March Club President Declares

By KATHERINE V. SINKS
Of The Evening News Staff.

That 2,800,000 American club women are participating in the furtherance of the "Sisterhood of Woman" in the great onward march of civilization in the twentieth century, was the inspirational note sounded yesterday by Mrs. Thomas Gerald Winter, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, to the California clubs and other women's organizations she contacted yesterday through their representatives who heard her in an address at the Trinity auditorium in Los Angeles and later gathered about her at luncheon at the Biltmore hotel.

Glendale's pride in the event was justified by the fact that Mrs. Charles H. Toll, Glendale resident, and president of the Los Angeles District Federation of Women's clubs, presided most graciously and with dignity at both the morning and afternoon meetings, introduced Mrs. Winter and other state and district officers and leaders.

Another Glendale woman seated on the platform at the Trinity auditorium was Mrs. Mattison B Jones, past president of the Los Angeles district.

Tuesday Afternoon Club

There were over sixty-five Tuesday Afternoon club members, led by their president, Mrs. Daniel Campbell, present to hear Mrs. Winter, and more than fifteen of these local women attended the luncheon later at the Biltmore.

Mrs. Toll is deserving of many compliments for her quiet poise and charming eloquence, and yesterday morning she opened the meeting by dedicating a beautiful gavel presented to her by her district board. She stated that the Los Angeles federation is just 23 years old. She added that California has already had two biennial conventions of the general federation, one in Los Angeles in 1902 and the second in San Francisco in 1912. The third biennial is scheduled for next June 3 to 13 in Los Angeles, and Mrs. Winter's present visit to California is preliminary to this big event.

Mrs. Winter has completely won the hearts of California club women, and she was given an inspiring greeting yesterday when she was presented by Mrs. Toll.

Leader's Attributes

Power of intellect, a cultured background, pleasing eloquence, and a profound understanding of the present age and of the problems and desires of the 2,800,000 clubwomen she leads, are some of the attributes of this club leader

From her first greeting to her farewell message her listeners were spellbound with her discourse on women's affairs, club affairs, national affairs and international affairs. She spoke for more than an hour, outlinging the evolution of the woman's club, of the development of the local, district, state and national units, which, she declared, are functioning today as an organization "to further the sisterhood of woman." She spoke again in discouragement of partisan politics and hopefully of world peace.

She pleaded for the development of the spiritual, economic and governmental duties of the home, and for women's club organizations to "be without bias, without partisanship and without self-seeking."

Pleads for Peace

One of the features of her final word she voiced in the following words: "I hope some time the impetus of peace will be stronger than the impetus of war."

From Trinity auditorium 700 of the clubwomen motored to the Biltmore hotel for the luncheon and afternoon meeting.

Mrs. Toll again presided and again the clubwomen heard the voice of their beloved national president. Mrs. Winter spoke informally of her varied experiences traveling about the United States. Later Mrs. Toll presented a group of leaders of women's organizations not belonging to the federation.

This will be Mrs. Winter's adieu to California clubwomen until she returns for the biennial in June. Tomorrow afternoon she will speak at the southern district convention in Riverside and before the Friday Morning club on Friday in Los Angeles.

After a final conference Saturday with the California local biennial board, she will return to her official duties at her headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Glendalians Present

Glendale women attending the morning meeting were Mesdames Daniel Campbell, John Robert White, Hugh Blue, G. Phillips, Lee Strouse, William Hunter, E. S. McKee, Lillian Dow, H. E. Bartlett, F. S. Card, H. C. Wilcox, Roy Ballagh, J. E. Sargent, Alexander Mitchell, E. A. Lange, D. E. Sanker, W. W. Watson, C. E. Hutchinson, Lusby, C. M. Calderwood, Helen Hanscom, A. A. Barton, LeRoy Bosserman, Charles

PLAN PARTY FOR THANKSGIVING EVE

Exchange Club Members and Guests Will Feast on Turkey Nov. 28

Elaborate arrangements are being made by the members of the Exchange club for their party which is to be given at Jensen's Egyptian Village Thanksgiving eve, Wednesday, November 28.

The plans call for a real Thanksgiving dinner, with turkey 'n everything, to be followed by an evening of jollity which will include dancing. As each member of the club will be present and is allowed to bring friends, a large crowd is expected.

Promises Real Party

Exchangeite Millet is in charge of the affair and promises every one who attends a real old-fashioned Thanksgiving party. He has arranged several surprises for the evening which are being carefully guarded, which he states will provide no end of fun for those in attendance. He will also have several favor dances and events where the prizes and favors will not only be amusing, but worth while.

It is suggested that this Thanksgiving party be made a regular annual event, taking precedence over any other engagement which a member of the Exchange club may have for this evening. A real orchestra will be on hand to furnish music for the dancers, and a good program is being arranged.

Nine Men Earn Place on Debating Teams

Keen competition was afforded in the recent debating tryouts held at Occidental. About twenty men took part and from this number the judges picked nine who will represent Oxy in the conference debates. The question debated upon was, "Resolved, that Congress should have the power to nullify decisions of the Supreme court by re-enacting laws declared unconstitutional." A wealth of material was exhibited in the tryouts, and a lively debating season is promised by Edward Jones, the Occidental student debating representative.

The men who were selected are Frank Bradshaw, Verne Mantel, Don Condit, Herbert Doran, Ernest Galarza, Glenn Lembke, Edward Parks, Robert Stevenson and Guy Wadsworth. The judges were Professors Bird, Lindsley and Stelter.

TODAY—Auto Transport in California; Why the Campanille Defies Quakes.

By ELLIS H. MARTIN
For International News Service

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—The extent to which transportation is becoming motorized in California is shown by the annual report of the automobile department of the California Railroad commission.

This report shows that there are 713 motor carriers operating under the jurisdiction of the commission and they employ 1,600 cars in passenger service and nearly 1500 trucks and trailers for freight carrying. During the last calendar year the auto carriers of the state transported 21,221,928 passengers.

Under the regulation of the commission this form of transportation is rapidly becoming standardized and a higher class of service rendered each year. So rapid has been the development of this form of transportation that it is now possible to travel by auto in California from the Oregon line to the Mexican border, choice of valley or coast route being offered. Across-the-State service is given in the extreme north, it being possible to travel by auto using several different stage lines from Crescent City to Fort Bidwell, from Eureka to Red Bluff, to Nevada State line, from Oroville, Chico, Sacramento and Stockton to the Lake Tahoe and Feather River territory; from the centre of population to the Yosemite Valley and contiguous territory; from Fresno and Bakersfield and other Valley points to the Coast and to the high Sierras.

Out of Los Angeles and San Diego stage lines run in every direction, serving San Bernardino Mountain territory, Imperial Valley, and the vast desert areas that spread over the southeastern part of the state. Many of the stage lines publish joint tariffs and so arrange their time schedules that the necessary change from one line to another is accompanied by a minimum of discomfort. As a result there are few places in California today that are inaccessible to the traveler by auto stage.

The Campanile, one of the landmarks of the campus of the University of California at Berkeley, is one of the world's few earthquake proof structures, according to professors in the engineering department of the university.

It was built in imitation of the famous Italian tower. At the time it was built there was a great deal of discussion as to the practicability of shock-proof buildings. The professors contended that such a tower could be built which would be successful, and others said that it could not. Finally the professors won, and the tower was built as they wished it.

In order to maintain the proper balance of the structure, so as to keep it from falling when an earthquake comes, the walls were made thicker at the bottom. As the walls rise the thickness becomes less, until at the top they are thinner than the average walls. In this way the center of gravity is much lower than it would be if the walls were the same thickness throughout. When an earthquake comes the tower will rock and sway, but it will not fall. It works on the same principle as the always upright salt-shaker, or the toy dolls which cannot be knocked down.

Although this type of architectural construction is considered to be very good for small buildings, or ornamental towers, it is believed that it will not be a success in the business districts, as the space which would be taken up by the thickness of the walls is too valuable to waste in such a manner.

Lieut. Governor Raps Richardson Regime

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 15.—Lieutenant-Governor C. C. Young, of California was the principal guest of honor and speaker at a meeting late yesterday of the Young Men's Club here.

In his especially prepared speech, Lieutenant-Governor Young declared that the "economy administration" of Governor Friend W. Richardson had utterly failed. He also called for the election of a legislature pledged to protect the public interests.

HER FACE EXPRESSES INNOCENCE

British Critics Say This Girl Passes Test

Miss Moyna MacGill, whose face is declared the exemplification of innocence

Because, in the opinion of a score of British art critics, her face best expressed innocence, Miss Moyna MacGill was selected for the role of "Miriam Rozella" in a film of that title, to be produced in England. A score of well known British actresses, including Miss MacGill, were screen tested in the search for the best "exemplification of innocence."

A dignified man was sitting in a restaurant downtown waiting for his soup. Perhaps it is unnecessary to say he was a newspaperman, and still is, for that matter.

The waiter, a clumsy blighter, tripped as he neared the customer, and spilled the bowl of soup over the latter. Instantly the waiter was covered with confusion, even as the customer was covered with soup.

"Did you get any of that?" asked the waiter anxiously.

"No," snapped the customer. "I didn't have my mouth open."

* * *

"I can make you forget your worries," advertises Mr. Tibbitts. 'An interesting little brochure of a few pages does the trick, and you will be relieved of all your sorrows."

We have read this advertisement several times and have become interested in it. We would like to try Mr. Tibbitts' cure, but unfortunately he is located in the Strand, London, and getting over to get one of his books would cause us more trouble. For a good many more years than we would care to confess we have been looking for some sure panacea for worries. We generally have on hand an assorted stock of worries that would compare favorably with the list carried by the League of Nations. They generally wear themselves out one at a time, and are forgotten, but as soon as we lose one, we pick up another and maybe two or three.

We found a long time ago that we could not drown our sorrows, because sorrows can all swim, and they never seem to get beyond their depth. We have often thought that we observed one of our sorrows going down for the third time and gasping for breath, but it always regained the surface, and finally lived to a ripe old age to die a natural death. Lately we have been trying psycho-analysis to have it point the way out of our difficulties, and, while we can report progress, after a manner of speaking, we still have a few active worries with well-developed kicks in them. We have just about decided to keep these. We have had some of them for fifteen or twenty years, and they have grown to seem just like "home folks." In fact, we believe we would be rather lonely without them.

Uncle Wiggily Bedtime Stories

— BY HOWARD R. GARIS —

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE FEATHERS

"Bless my pink, twinkling nose, but it was cold last night!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggily, one morning, as he came down to breakfast in his hollow stump bungalow.

"Cold?" repeated Nurse Jane. "Didn't you have covers enough?"

"Yes," replied the bunny gentleman, "But, somehow, I seemed to shiver all night, as though frost might be under my pillows."

"What you need to sleep on is a feather bed," said Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy. "It is time you had one. You are getting old, Wiggy, my dear——"

"Ha! Ha! Don't say I am getting old!" laughed the rabbit. "I feel young and spry yet," and he jumped over his chair before he sat down to eat his breakfast of griddle cakes and maple syrup.

"Well, you are as nimble as Jack B. Quick, who jumped over the candlestick!" laughed Nurse Jane. "But, all the same, you will sleep much warmer on a feather bed."

"And where am I to get a feather bed, I should like to know?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"If you will get me the feathers I'll make the feather bed for you," offered the muskrat lady Housekeeper.

"It shall be done!" cried Mr. Longears. "I'll go to Mrs. Cluck Cluck, the hen lady, and get some of her old feathers. And I'll go to Mrs. Wibblewobble, the duck lady, and get some of her old feathers."

"Yes, and while you are about it why not get some feathers from Mr. Gobble Obble, the turkey?" asked Nurse Jane.

"That I shall do," said Uncle Wiggily.

He soon finished his breakfast, not eating too fast, of course, for that would not have been polite. Then, slinging over his shoulder a big bag, the bunny gentleman set out to gather feathers with which Nurse Jane would make him a warm bed.

"Good morning, Mrs. Cluck Cluck!" greeted Uncle Wiggily, as he reached the coop of the hen lady. "Have Charlie and Arabella Chick gone to school yet?"

"Oh, long ago," cawed Mrs. Cluck Cluck. "You are too late to play tag with them, Uncle Wiggily, if that's what you wanted."

"Oh, I didn't want that!" chuckled the bunny. "But could you let me have some of your old feathers you don't need any more? I want Nurse Jane to make me a warm bed to sleep in."

"Have all the feathers you need," kindly offered the hen lady, and Uncle Wiggily filled his bag partly full. Then he hopped over the fields and through the woods until he came to the house where Mrs. Wibblewobble, the duck lady, lived.

"Good morning, Mrs. Wibblewobble," greeted the rabbit gentleman.

"Quack! Quack!" answered Mrs. Wibblewobble. "If you came to play tag with Lulu, Alice and Jimmie, you are too late," went on the duck lady. "They have gone to school."

"I didn't come to play tag!" said the bunny. "I came to get some of your loose feathers," and he told why he wanted them.

"Have all you wish," kindly offered Mrs. Wibblewobble. So the bunny gentleman filled his bag half full.

"But I still need some more," he said. "I'll get them from Mr. Gobble Obble, the turkey."

The turkey gentleman was out in the barn, looking at the calendar and counting how many days before Thanksgiving, and when he saw Uncle Wiggily the turkey called:

"Glad to see you, Uncle Wiggily!" Did you bring cranberries in that bag?"

"No, I have feathers here," said the bunny, "but I need more, so Nurse Jane can make me a warm bed. Have you any feathers you don't want?"

"Lots of them," answered the turkey, and he helped Uncle Wiggily gather them up and stuff the bag full. Then the turkey gave a shiver and a shake and out fell a lot more loose feathers, some very long.

"They will be fine in my feather bed," said Uncle Wiggily, sticking the long feathers in the top of his bag. Then he started for home, but all of a sudden, as he was hopping across the fields, along came the Skillery Scallery Alligator.

"Ah, ha! Now I shall nibble your ears!" cried the Alligator.

"Not if I can help it," said Uncle Wiggily. And when the bad 'Gator leaned over to bite the bunny, Uncle Wiggily pushed the bag of feathers in the bad chap's face. And the long turkey feathers, sticking out of the top, tickled the Alligator on his nose.

"Ker choo! Ker foo! Ker snitzium!" sneezed the 'Gator, and he sneezed so hard that he turned a somersault and a flip flop. And then he sneezed again. And while the 'Gator was doing this Uncle Wiggily hopped safely home with his bag of feathers.

"Good morning, Mrs. Wibblewobble."

"Ha! Ha!" laughed the bunny. "I fooled the bad chap!" And so the 'Gator had no ears to nibble that day. But the bunny gentleman had a fine warm feather bed to sleep in that night. And if the clothes line doesn't fall down the cellar steps and spill the handkerchiefs in the coal bin, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the eggs.

The little town of Troon, Ayrshire, Scotland, has recently had a windfall in the shape of a legacy of half a million pounds, which is to be devoted to educational purposes chiefly. A ship owner named Marr was the benefactor. He originally made the legacy when his estate was worth only about $250,000, but of later years he enlarged his wealth greatly and allowed for the increase in the legacy to Troon. He has only recently died.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally by Drinking Quarts of Good Water.

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Too much rich food creates acids which clog the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood. Then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin to drink soft water in quantities; also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Advertisement.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

Mrs. E. W.:—When there is an inflammation of the inner part of the ear, due to an extension from a sore throat or any other cause, if pus accumulates the ear drum will usually rupture itself when the pressure is great enough. However, this is very undesirable. A clean incision made by a skillful physician before the time of the spontaneous rupture, is much more desirable. It heals very much quicker and may prevent a great deal of trouble, like extension of the pus into the mastoid cells.

Many people have an idea that if the ear drum is punctured it always remains open. This is not true. The ear drum heals just as any other tissue of the body. The thing to do in the ear trouble is to go to an ear specialist. For while Nature may eventually clear up the trouble, she is very apt to do a bungling job and leave deafness in the wake.

There is no danger of losing your mind from a perforated ear drum, so forget that.

Mrs. F.:—Your child who is so nervous and dizzy, and complains his spine pains him so that he can hardly straighten out when he bends down, should have a very thorough physical examination. It may be possible that he has Pott's disease (tuberculosis of the spine). That is curable taken in time. Heliotheraphy (sun treatment) or the Mercury-Vapor-Quartz Lamp which gives the concentrated healing sunlight rays, sometimes casts and frames, and sometimes surgery are used in these cases.

Special attention must be given to the diet and building up the nutrition. Have you been following my articles on Diet for Children? His diet should include at least a quart of milk a day; at least a cup of vegetables, part of them raw; at least a cup of fruit, part fresh; egg yolks, whole wheat bread and whole grain cereals. He should have an hour's rest in the day time and sleep 10 to 12 hours every night. There should be a cheery attitude around him all of the time, no emphasis and no unnecessary talking about his symptoms (or any one else's). The mental atmosphere around a child is terribly important.

I will have an article or a series of articles very soon on the nervous child. Meanwhile, Mrs. F., heed my caution and secure a skillful and competent physician for him. If you are not acquainted with the psysicians in your town, get in touch with your County Medical Society and ask them to give you a list of the physicians and specialists in children's diseases.

Mrs. H.:—We recently ran some articles on the Thymus and the Thyroid Glands. We have them in form now to send to our readers. If you will enclose a stamped and fully addressed envelope (name, town, state and house number) and ask for this, you may have it.

E. H. S.:—Cooked rice averages from 1-2 to 3-4 of a cup for 100 Calories. One-half cup of uncooked rice would average much more than this, of course—about 100 calories to the ounce. Half a cup of uncooked rice would be about four ounces cooked, or 400 calories. I am glad you are getting along so well losing your excess weight by following our instructions.

Mrs. J.:—We have a list of books on tuberculosis for the layman, and also a list on sex hygiene and on child care. You may have them by following the rules of the column—a self-addressed, stamped envelope with your inquiry.

Mrs. B.:—Send for the article on high blood pressure. In your case your overweight is undoubtedly the cause of it. Better send for the pamphlet on reducing also.

Tomorrow: — Baby's Wardrobe

My Dear Followers: When sending for material which we offer you, please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet on reducing and gaining is the only one for which you must enclose 4 cents in stamps extra. Address your letters to me in care of this paper. Make them as brief as possible, not over 250 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember, it is impossible for me to diagnose for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate very much the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the columns as soon as possible, if they are of general interest. Don't forget the s. a. s. e. if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

CHOIR, CABARET, GRAND OPERA

Singer Gains Training For Her Rare Voice

Katherine Meisle, who climbs to fame as singer. Also meets Dan Cupid

CHICAGO, Nov. 14.—When Katherine Meisle began to sing in the choir near her home those who marveled at the rare quality of her voice, then untrained, said, with a wag of the head, "She's wasting her time there. She will never get anywhere."

But Katherine took her opportunities there seriously—until she felt she had acquired all she could. Then she found a place in a Chicago cabaret.

Church folk did the head-wagging then.

"No good will come of such a move," they said. They made sly remarks about the primrose path and other forbidden strolling places, and went their way.

Katherine went hers, too, and while they thought of the primrose path she thought of the rocky road ahead to fame and kept climbing.

Now the dream she has cherished all those years is to be fulfilled. She is ready to make her debut as a member of the Chicago civic opera. Her contralto voice has drawn the praise of many leading critics.

And while acquiring a place in the operatic world she did not deny Dan Cupid a few minutes time. She is now the wife of a wealthy Philadelphia business man.

BEAUTY CHATS

by EDNA KENT FORBES

BEAUTY AND GOOD MANNERS

A motherly woman wrote me some time ago the tale of a very lovely little girl who had come to the city to live, whose sweetness and beauty attracted everyone, but who was so ignorant of the simplest rules of social etiquette that she became rather a joke.

I often receive letters of the sort, and never know quite how to answer them. We are supposed to talk only of beauty and how to acquire it in this column, yet good manners have a great deal to do with good looks.

Magazines and newspapers sometimes print series of articles on all these little social forms, and there are books published on the subject at all sorts of prices. I should think these would be useful if one felt quite ignorant of even the essentials of the subject. To look about and imitate is not always safe, for the people you imitate may be no better than yourself or worse.

Besides good manners are not the same the world over. In America we eat always with the right hand, and after we have cut up food with the knife, put the knife down and transfer the fork to the right hand. In England this is bad manners. The fork is almost always in the left hand, and they tell me it is incorrect to have the prongs turned up. Mannerisms of speech, accent, the very choice of words, differ not only in one country from another, but even in one state from another.

Still it's a complex problem. It's foolish to scoff at such little social forms as the way one eats or answers a dinner invitation. These things are important only because they are pass words to the various classes of society (we pretend we have no class distinctions, but of course we have. No country ever existed without them.) I think the only practical advice I can give is to tell young girls to make friends with some charming elderly woman and to ask her to teach them.

Lucile H:—You cannot overcome the tendency to freckle, but you can bleach them off somewhat as fast as they appear. Simple bleaches are the only kind to use, as the skin will deteriorate if strong ones are used very much. Cucumber or lemon juice make simple bleaches that will not injure the skin.

M. H. M.:—The most becoming colors will always be those that are the same as your eyes or your hair. That does not mean that you must use the exact shade, as light hair and eyes need darker shades to enrich the natural colors that have a tinge of red in them. An instance is that of grey, it should not be chosen if the skin is sallow unless there is a suggestion of pink to it.

Lily:—I do not think that the rouge caused the blackheads. They were probably in your skin and so small you did not see them until the rouge came in contact with them and changed them into little red specks more easily noticeable.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes, in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

RECOMMENDS FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

"Your medicine worked a miracle for me," writes Mrs. C. Biron, 140 Fayette street, Lynn, Mass. "I was all run down, had a cough all winter, also kidney trouble and after taking a few boxes of your medicine my cough and backache left me. I can eat and sleep well. I canvass and recommend it at every house I enter." Prompt relief secured from kidney and bladder irritations, rheumatic pains through using Foley Kidney Pills. Insist on the genuine—refuse substitutes.

Here are some new fancywork ideas which I have seen recently in city gift-shops:

The New "Egg Cozy": In grandmother's day the teapot was covered with a "tea cozy" to keep it warm. Today we have similar coverings to put over boiled eggs, in serving. They are made in the shape of a hen's head, as follows: Cut two pieces of white flannel in the shape of a hen's head, then lay the two pieces together and go around the edges (but not at bottom) with a buttonhole stitch, using red silkateen. This forms a sort of little hood that fits over an egg (which lies on a plate). Secure a small strip of red flannel on the hen's head (for a comb) and embroider a red eye. The entire article should be just large enough to fit snugly over an egg. If you cannot cut the hen's head out of flannel from eye, you can trace a good pattern from a child's picture book which contains poultry pictures. This little egg cozy delights a child—and, might, I should think, prove useful in tempting a child to eat a boiled egg he didn't want.

A Home-Made Telephone Shield: These are for standing desk telephones. They are made in two parts, hinged together with a strip of cloth—in the shape of a screen. Measure your telephone, then cut two oblong pieces of cardboard which are high enough to cover it when stood on end. These pieces should be five inches wide. Cover each piece separately, with either silk, tapestry-cloth, or cretonne. Hinge them together with a narrow, folded strip of the same material. Sew a braid completely around the outside edges of the shield, and the work is done. Stand the screen up to hide the ugly telephone. On the inside of this screen is pinned a card containing the 'phone numbers you most frequently use.

A Door-Stop for a Child's Room: In the downstairs rooms, we like to have door-stops of bronze, iron and other metals. But in the upstairs rooms—especially in the nursery—a "Dinah Door-Stop" is a delight. This kind of stop is made out of a tall bottle. Fill the bottle with small stones to make it heavy. Cork it, then pad the neck with cotton till it is round, like a head; cover this head part with part of an old black silk stocking, and embroider a face on one side of this stocking "head." Now make a small white sun-bonnet to cover the back of the head. Then begin dressing the bottle with kerchief, still black skirts, and stuffed sleeves (to represent arms).

This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So, if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question. Be sure to use your full name, street number, and the name of your city and state.—The Editor.

Heart and Home Problems

By MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl 13 years of age, in the sophomore year at high school. I appear as if I were 15 or 16, and all of my friends are about that age. I feel that old, also. But my friends' parents permit them to have dates, while mine won't let me. They say I am too young.

I can't go to any entertainment and have a good time. All the other girls have dates except me, and I feel lonely. I dress as attractively as I know how. I get all the clothes I want and am spoiled in every way except that I can't have dates. I am the only child. I know how to behave and to always be a lady.

Should I tell falsehoods to my parents and steal out? I would hate that. It does not seem respectful.

ANXIOUS BETTY LOVE.

You are not old enough to go with boys, even if you are so advanced in school. Usually a girl begins to accept invitations in her junior year. Even next year you will be too young to go with boys to any extent, but at that time it seems to me it would be all right for you to go to school parties. A girl misses so much of her school life if she is not able to attend the dances and other functions.

Do not try to deceive your parents, because it wouldn't pay. You would not enjoy your stolen freedom and your parents would probably find out and lose faith in you."

* * *

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl of 21 and a stranger here, holding a good position. Since I came here I have met a young man and have grown to like him very much. We have been keeping steady company. Some weeks ago I was offered a position out west. Naturally my friend does not want me to leave, but sometimes my ambition to see new places makes me wish we were nothing to each other.

Please advise me what to do.

UNDECIDED.

Since you are only 21 it seems to me you ought to have a little fling at life before you settle down. If the young man really loves you he will not forget you merely because you leave him to take up work in another city.

Of course, you are the only one who can really decide your problem, because you alone know how much the young man means to you and whether or not you want to settle down and spend the rest of your life with him. Think the matter over carefully and decide whether you will have greater happiness where you are, or whether you will always be dissatisfied because you did not grasp your opportunity to see more of America before you settled down.

In Japan they rub noses instead of kissing, but who wants to travel all the way to Japan to do that?

Are You Qualified to Vote at Bond Election? If Not, Register at Once!

Registration of voters for the sewer bond election on January 8, 1924, is now under way in this city and a deputy to make registrations is on duty daily at The Glendale Evening News office between the hours of 4 and 8 p. m., Sundays excepted.

Also, a deputy is at the city hall to take registrations from 1 to 4 p. m., except Sundays.

Any voter who registered in 1922, or since, AND HAS NOT CHANGED HIS OR HER PLACE OF RESIDENCE, is NOT required to re-register. He or she may vote at the bond election. Moving from one house into another constitutes a change of residence.

Any voter who registered in 1922, or since, and who HAS changed his or her place of residence, MUST re-register if he or she wishes to vote at the bond election.

A residence of one year in the state, ninety days in the county and thirty days in the precinct is necessary to qualify as a voter.

Any voter in doubt as to whether he or she is qualified to vote at the bond election is urged to IMMEDIATELY communicate with the city clerk's office for information.

500TH ANNIVERSARY

The five-hundredth anniversary of the death of Dick Whittington, thriee Lord Mayor of London, and famous with his cat in song and story, was celebrated recently. Authorities differ about Whittington's life and his cat. The almshouse founded by him in Highgate is still maintained. There is a great deal of difference as to whether the cat is a myth or not, the anti-cat people saying the story was invented long after his death. Others lean to the legend and the majority of English folk would probably vote in favor of the cat.

The wedding ring of a woman in Yorkshire, England, was recently struck by lightning, and the wearer was killed.

LA CRESCENTA

CHURCH BUILDING TO BE DEDICATED

Special Services Will Mark Structure's Consecration Sunday, Nov. 18th

The La Crescenta-Montrose Community church will be dedicated Sunday, November 18, at 3 p. m. Rev. Robert Freeman, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Pasadena, will preach the dedication sermon.

In the morning the Sunday school will hold a rally at 10 o'clock. There will be no preaching at this service.

On Monday, November 19, the church board will give a reception in its parlors at 8 p. m. This reception is open to all residents of the valley, and they are not only cordially invited to attend, but also to feel this is their church home.

Wednesday evening, November 21 Rev. Louis Tinning, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Glendale, will deliver a sermon, to which everyone is invited.

A treat is in store for everyone on Friday evening, November 23, when a benefit concert will be given by Mrs. Ethelyn Weaver, pianist, Mrs. Stockholm Reed, vocalist, William Reed, violinist. Many other artists will also be presented. These accomplished people will give their services gratis, so the full proceeds will go to the church fund.

Rev. Kelso extends his thanks to all who have co-operated with him in his efforts to plan, and erect this splendid $16,000 church, a monument to the progress, paramount at this time in the valley.

Patriotism Is Theme

As his theme for the last service held in the school auditorium, Rev. Kelso took "Patriotism," paying a strong tribute to the brave boys who served their country so well.

The Community Sunday school is making rapid strides toward the top in the matter of attendance, and great hopes are held for the future of the Community church and the place it will take in the life of the entire valley.

A brush fire on Briggs' Terrace was promptly quelled by the fire department, who answered the alarm on the run.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stevens have left for a visit to their son, A. W. Stevens, Jr., who resides in Phoenix, Ariz.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Woman's club, nineteen new members were taken into the fold by acclamation, one from Glendale, and one from Tujunga. Plans for joining the federation were discussed and it was decided best to wait, to hear of the new rules, rather than to revise the old ones at present and then have to revise the revised ones, which, of course would be a somewhat complicated and tedious task.

Plans for the proposed new club house were discussed, and members were asked to come to the next meeting full of ideas for building plans, material, etc. Mrs. Turck, much to the regret of the club, resigned as chairman of the building committee, and Mrs. Klatt graciously consented to take Mrs. Turck's place.

Mrs. Seymour Thomas read in French and then translated a letter of thanks from the club's little French war orphan in Paris. In many flowery sentences this youngster expressed her appreciation of all the club is doing and has done in the past for her.

A letter tendering her resignation was read from Mrs. A. Clapham; this was accepted with regrets.

A number of ladies presented their names to Mrs. Hall, who has charge of arrangements for the club in the matter of the lecture in astronomy to be given by Professor Baumgart on December 14 in Los Angeles.

To raise money for the building fund the club will put into operation the birthday box, and all who have birthdays in the current month are asked to drop pennies for each year in the box at the club. It has been promised there will be no march played, now will the victim count out loud her pennies as they fall.

Mrs. Dean Culberson announced she would give a silver tea on November 23 at her Michigan avenue home, proceeds of which will be donated to the club. The club gift basket received many new gifts yesterday, a number of which found a ready sale.

Mrs. Mary B. Darrow, as chairman of the program committee, presented Miss Frances Morgan of Tujunga, who gave an exquisitely graceful interpretation of a Hungarian dance to Brahm's "Fifth Rhapsody." Miss Morgan charmed her audience by her enchantingly beautiful movements.

Miss Marie Ellis of Montrose gave two exceptionally clever Italian dialect readings. Though this was Miss Ellis' first appearance here, she was very well received, and, it is hoped, will soon be heard again. Mrs. G. Klatt and T. O. Potts were hostesses for the afternoon. As the ladies departed from the auditorium they were buttonholed by enthusiastic young Boy Scouts, who were selling tickets at a dime per ticket for their picture show, entitled "Dwellers of the Desert," to be given at the schoolhouse on November 21, at 3 p. m.

Tonight Dr. Montague Cleeves will give his celebrated lecture on Gothic architecture, illustrated by over 150 slides, pictures of the churches and cathedrals of Great Britain and Europe.

It is to be hoped this affair will be well attended, tickets being 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students and children. The lecture is to begin promptly at 8 p. m. and will be held in the school auditorium.

BURBANK

BURBANK DAY AT NEW SUBDIVISION

Benmar Hills Tract Stages Elaborate Program at Garden Fete

"Burbank Day" was observed at the Benmar Hills tract yesterday with an elaborate musical program last night, interspersed with addresses, chief of which was a speech by Mayor J. C. Crawford in which he told the large audience in a straight-from-the-shoulder manner what he believed to be the future of this city and why the outlook was bright.

The program was held on the grounds of the tract, which were a blaze of illumination. Oliver O. Clark of the Carnahan & Clark law firm, Los Angeles, also talked, and the Angeles Male quartet rendered several numbers, while Vern Isom favored the gathering with a violin solo.

Following the program, a buffet supper was served in the garden hall, after which there was dancing. Today is "Glendale Day" at the tract, states Ben Marks, and tonight Mayor Spencer Robinson of that city will address the large gathering expected, while Harry Girard of Glendale will also contribute to the program.

Friday has been set aside for the cities of the San Fernando valley, Saturday has been reserved for Hollywood and Pasadena, while Sunday will be "Los Angeles Day," with Mayor George E. Cryer as the principal speaker.

Vast Stores of Liquor

With seventy-five gallons of whiskey and a keg of wine on hand, together with divers and sundry lesser consignments, the Burbank police department takes on the aspect of a bonded warehouse.

Twenty-five gallons of hard liquor were found in the possession of Jake Shamon, according to Chief John H. Long, while fifty gallons equally hard were obtained from Pete Price of Los Angeles.

At the home of George McDonald was found a case containing twenty-one pints of beer, a half bottle of whiskey, it is said, and a number of alcoholic guests. In a cabin in Mint canyon, near Saugus, where two young men accused of being auto thieves were making their rendezvous, was found a thoroughly workmanlike still, which was remanded to the Burbank police department for inspection, along with the other exhibits.

Fine Court Started

A $40,000 bungalow court is under construction at 240 Angeleno avenue, with Carl Lamb in charge of the work. The builders are the Los Angeles Apartment company.

The court occupies a site 100x126 feet and will comprise six units on each side of a central plaza, with ten garages in the rear, the units on each side all in one building.

Of stucco, Spanish in design, this court is the very latest thing in income property, according to the builders, and represents a distinct asset to the city.

Emerson School to Give Radio Program

The Emerson School of Self-Expression, 730 South Glendale avenue, will furnish the talent for the Children's Hour on the KHJ radio station tonight, starting their program at 6:45 o'clock. The program follows:

"When Women Rule in 1975," by Adele Lloyd; "So Was I," by Robert Rhodes; Pianologue, "James," and "Arithmetic," by Mrs. R. W. Cleghorn, accompanied by Miss Bess Long, piano teacher of the school; sketch, by Mrs. Retta Rhodes and Alex Badger, "Carrie Studies Phrenology"; and a piano solo by Miss Bess Long.

The Emerson school has also been requested to furnish part of the program that is to be broadcasted at Thanksgiving.

Federal Reserve Head Endorses Mellon Plan

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Governor W. P. G. Harding of the federal reserve bank of Boston, has endorsed the tax reduction program of Secretary of Treasury Mellon. Harding, reflecting the view of many other reserve bank governors in session here, said:

"Secretary Mellon's tax recommendations are fundamentally sound. He has proposed a constructive program. If it is adopted by congress it will result in great good to the people and promote productive industry on a large scale."

Kansas City Grabs Reno's Divorce Fame

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 15.—Not content with forcing Reno, Nev., long the lair premiere of divorcees-to-be, to haul down its colors in shame at its comparatively small number of divorces, Kansas City rushed to enlarge the margin of victory. It now claims the youngest divorcee.

So young was Mrs. Lillian M. Brouseman, plaintiff, she was forced to file her divorce petition through her mother. Mrs. Brouseman was 15 years old.

The petition alleged the husband, 22, beat Mrs. Brouseman several times and that she finally left him because of extreme cruelty. The Brousemans had been married more than a year.

CITY PRINTING

RESOLUTION OF INTENTION NO. 2166

A RESOLUTION OF THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GLENDALE, DECLARING ITS INTENTION TO IMPROVE PORTIONS OF SYCAMORE CANON ROAD, LEXINGTON DRIVE, VERDUGO ROAD, CALIFORNIA AVENUE, STANLEY AVENUE, WILSON AVENUE, BROADWAY, HARVARD STREET, ORANGE GROVE AVENUE, ELK AVENUE, CHESTNUT STREET, MAPLE STREET, RALEIGH STREET, WINDSOR ROAD, GARFIELD AVENUE AND ACACIA AVENUE, AND OF CERTAIN STREETS AND ALLEYS INTERSECTING AND TERMINATING WITH SAID STREETS IN THE SAID CITY OF GLENDALE, DESCRIBING THE DISTRICT TO BE ASSESSED TO PAY THE COSTS AND EXPENSES OF SAID IMPROVEMENT, AND PROVIDING THAT BONDS BE ISSUED TO REPRESENT THE EXPENSES THEREOF AND FIXING THE TIME AND PLACE FOR THE HEARING OF OBJECTIONS TO SAID WORK.

(c) Lexington Drive from the extension of the westerly line of Verdugo Road to a line drawn at right angles to the center line of Lexington Drive through a point thereon one hundred seventy-five (175) feet westerly, measured along said center line and its easterly extension from the center line of Verdugo Road;

(e) Wilson Avenue from a line drawn at right angles to the center line of Wilson Avenue through a point therein one hundred (100) feet easterly, measured along the center line of Wilson Avenue, from the center line of Sycamore Canon Road, to a line drawn at right angles to the center line of Wilson Avenue through a point therein one hundred (100) feet westerly, measured along the center line of Wilson Avenue, from the center line of Sycamore Canon Road;

(f) Broadway between a line drawn across Broadway from a point in the northerly line of Broadway twenty-five (25) feet westerly, measured along said northerly line, from the northwesterly corner of Broadway and Sycamore Canon Road to a point in the southerly line of Broadway twenty-five (25) feet westerly, measured along said southerly line, from the southwesterly corner of Broadway and Sycamore Canon Road, and a line drawn across Broadway from a point in the northerly line of Broadway twenty-five (25) feet easterly, measured along said northerly line, from the northeasterly corner of Broadway and Sycamore Canon Road to a point in the southerly line of Broadway twenty-five (25) feet easterly, measured along said southerly line, from the southeasterly corner of Broadway and Sycamore Canon Road;

(g) Those portions of Harvard Street and of Orange Grove Avenue, each respectively, between a line drawn twenty-five (25) feet easterly from and parallel to the extensions of the easterly line of Sycamore Canon Road and the extensions of the easterly line of Sycamore Canon Road;

(h) Those portions of Harvard Street, Orange Grove Avenue, and of Elk Avenue, each respectively, between the extensions of the westerly line of Sycamore Canon Road and a line drawn twenty-five (25) feet westerly from and parallel to the westerly line of said Sycamore Canon Road and its extensions;

(i) That portion of Acacia Avenue between the southerly extension of the westerly line of Sycamore Canon Road and the southeasterly extension of the radial line bearing S. 17 deg., 05 min., 30 sec. E., common to curves of radius twenty (20) feet and radius one thousand one hundred sixty and twenty-two hundredths (1160.22) feet, said curves being the northwesterly line of that portion of Acacia Avenue lying easterly of Sycamore Canon Road at and adjacent to its intersection with Sycamore Canon Road.

Said grading shall include the whole width between property lines of Sycamore Canon Road, Verdugo Road, Lexington Drive, Broadway, and Acacia Avenue and the intersections or terminations of all intersecting or terminating streets and alleys within above described limits, as the same are shown on the plans hereinafter referred to and shall include the roadways only of California Avenue, Wilson Avenue, Harvard Street, Orange Grove Avenue and Elk Avenue, within the respective limits, hereinabove set forth.

Excepting therefrom those portions thereof required by law to be kept in order or repair by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon, and also excepting such portions of said work as may be occupied by the cement concrete gutter hereinafter described and to be constructed hereunder. The location and extent of the paving which shall be done hereunder is specifically set forth on the plans and profiles for said work on file in the office of the City Engineer of said City. Said work shall be done in accordance therewith and in accordance with specifications therefor adopted by the Council of the City of Glendale, and known as Specifications No. 57, on file in the office of the City Clerk of said City. The foregoing work is fully set forth, delineated and described in said plans, profiles and detailed drawings and in said specifications, and the said plans, profiles, detailed drawings and specifications are hereby referred to for a full and detailed description of the said proposed work and improvement. The grade to which the work shall be done and the improvement made, which are provided for hereinabove, is shown on the profiles therefor hereinabove referred to and hereinafter enumerated, and which are on file in the office of the City Engineer, and to said profiles reference is hereby made for a description of the grade to which the said work shall be done.

Second: (a) That a six (6) inch Class "B" cast iron water pipe be laid in Sycamore Canon Road between a line seventeen (17) feet northerly from and parallel to the easterly extension of the southerly line of that portion of Broadway lying west of Sycamore Canon Road and a line fifteen (15) feet easterly from and parallel to the northerly extension of the westerly line of Sinclair Avenue, and also between a line fifteen (15) feet northerly from and parallel to the easterly extension of the southerly line of that portion of Windsor Road extending westerly from Sycamore Canon Road and the westerly extension of the northerly line of Lot 9, Tract No. 3841 as per Map Book 42, page 78, Los Angeles County Records. Said six (6) inch water pipe shall also extend across said Sycamore Canon Road in its intersection with California Avenue and partially across said Sycamore Canon Road at its intersection with Windsor Road. That a twelve (12) inch Class "B" cast iron water pipe be laid in Verdugo Road from the easterly extension of the northerly line of Lexington Drive to a line one hundred twenty-five (125) feet southerly from and parallel with the southeasterly line of that portion of Sycamore Canon Road lying easterly from Verdugo Road. That an eight (8) inch Class "B" cast iron water pipe be laid partly across Verdugo Road to connect the southerly end of the twelve (12) inch cast iron pipe hereinabove described with the water main now in existence along the easterly side of Verdugo Road, (said connection with the existing main to be at a line one hundred sixty (160) feet south of and parallel with the southerly line of that part of Sycamore Canon Road lying easterly from Verdugo Road.) and in Lexington Drive, and the easterly extension thereof from a line drawn at right angles to the center line of Lexington Drive through a point one hundred seventy-five (175) feet westerly measured along said line from the center line of Verdugo Road, said eight (8) inch pipe to connect with the twelve (12) inch pipe hereinabove described. That a four (4) inch Class "B" cast iron water pipe be constructed in Sycamore Canon Road opposite the termination of Sinclair Avenue to connect with the six (6) inch cast iron pipe hereinabove described and to extend to the southerly line of Sycamore Canon Road, and in Sycamore Canon Road at the same opposite the termination of Garfield Avenue, being along a line three hundred ninety-six (396) feet southerly from and parallel with the southerly line of Windsor Road, and in Sycamore Canon Road partly across the same along a line three hundred sixteen (316) feet northerly from and parallel to the easterly extension of the northerly line of Windsor Road, same to extend from the westerly line of Sycamore Canon Road to the water main now in place in said Sycamore Canon Road. Also in the intersection of Acacia Avenue with Sycamore Canon Road extending across said Sycamore Canon Road from the southerly prolongation of the westerly line of that part of Sycamore Canon Road north of Acacia Avenue to a radial line drawn across Acacia Avenue at the easterly side of Sycamore Canon Road as the same is specifically set forth on Plan No. 809-W hereinafter referred to. All of said pipe shall be constructed, together with the connections, valves, fire hydrants and appurtenances thereto, all as shown on said Plan No. 809-W, plans and cross-sections No. 809, Sheets 1 and 2, Plan 439 and Plan No. 448. Said pipe and appurtenances shall be used for fire protection and for the distribution of the municipal water supply of the City of Glendale and there shall be constructed in connection therewith galvanized iron service pipes and tees, of the sizes, dimensions and at the locations shown on Plan No. 809-W. The top of the barrel of the pipe lines above described shall be uniformly three (3) feet below the top of the nearest curb. All of said pipes shall be laid in further accordance with specifications No. 42 on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Glendale and reference is hereby made to the hereinabove mentioned plans on file in the office of the City Engineer of said City and to the said specifications for a further full and more complete description of the said work, and the exact location of the same.

Third: That a cement curb of the class designated as Class "A" in specifications No. 31, adopted by the Council of the City of Glendale and on file in the office of the City Clerk be constructed along the lines on each side of the roadway of Sycamore Canon Road, which are shown and delineated on Plan No. 809, Sheet No. 1, hereinafter referred to, and its northeasterly extension, from the southeasterly extension of the northeasterly line of Lot 133 of Tract No. 5319 hereinbefore referred to, to a line drawn at right angles to the southeasterly line of Sycamore Canon Road as the same is shown on said plan and sheet, from a point distant thereon one hundred fifty (150) feet southwesterly from the said southeasterly extension of the northeasterly line of said Lot 133, excepting where a culvert is to be constructed as is hereinafter particularly described. That a cement curb of the class designated as Class "B" in Specifications No. 31, hereinabove referred to, be constructed along the lines particularly shown and indicated on Plan No. 809, Sheets 1 and 2, from the southwesterly terminations of the Class "A" curb hereinabove described, to the westerly extension of the northerly line of Lot Nine (9), Tract No. 3841, hereinabove referred to, excepting where a culvert is to be built south of Acacia Avenue, under these proceedings. Said curbs of said Class "B" shall also be constructed along the lines particularly shown and indicated on said Plan No. 809, Sheets 1 and 2, between the respective limits, on each of the several streets, hereinafter enumerated, namely: (a) Verdugo Road, between the westerly extension of the northerly line of California Avenue and a line drawn ninety (90) feet northerly from and parallel to the easterly extension of the northerly line of Lexington Drive; (b) Lexington Drive, between the westerly line of Verdugo Road and a line drawn at right angles to the center line of Lexington Drive, distant thereon one hundred seventy-five (175) feet westerly from the center line of Verdugo Road; (c) Broadway, between a line drawn across Broadway from a point in the northerly line thereof distant thereon twenty-five (25) feet westerly from the westerly line of Sycamore Canon Road to a point in the southerly line of Broadway, distant thereon twenty-five (25) feet westerly from the said westerly line of Sycamore Canon Road and a line drawn across Broadway from a point in the northerly line thereof distant thereon twenty-five (25) feet easterly from the easterly line of Sycamore Canon Road to a point in the southerly line of Broadway, distant thereon twenty-five (25) feet easterly from the said easterly line of Sycamore Canon Road; (d) Harvard Street, Orange Grove Avenue and Maple Street and Windsor Road, between a line on each, respectively, three (3) feet easterly from and parallel to the easterly line of Sycamore Canon Road and a line on each, respectively, three (3) feet westerly from and parallel to the westerly line of Sycamore Canon Road; (e) Elk Avenue, Chestnut Street and Raleigh Street between the westerly line of Sycamore Canon Road and a line on each, respectively, three (3) feet westerly from and parallel to the westerly line of Sycamore Canon Road; (f) Garfield Avenue, between the easterly line of Sycamore Canon Road and a line thirteen (13) feet easterly from and parallel to the easterly line of Sycamore Canon Road; (g) California Avenue, between the westerly line of Sycamore Canon Road and a line drawn at right angles to the center line of California Avenue, distant thereon seventy (70) feet westerly from the center line of Sycamore Canon Road.

Said curb of said Class "B" shall also be constructed at the following locations particularly shown on said Plan No. 809, Sheets 1 and 2, namely: (a) Curb returns at the northeasterly corner of Sycamore Canon Road and California Avenue and in California Avenue; (b) Curb returns at the northeast and southwest corners of Sycamore Canon Road and Stanley Avenue and in Stanley Avenue; (c) Curb returns at the northeast and southwest corners of Sycamore Canon Road and Wilson Avenue and in Wilson Avenue; (d) Curb returns at the northeast and southeast corners of Sycamore Canon Road and Acacia Avenue and in Acacia Avenue; (e) Curb returns of twenty-five (25) feet radius on the westerly side of Sycamore Canon Road, opposite the northeast and southeast corners of the termination of Garfield Avenue in Sycamore Canon Road. All of said curbs shall be constructed in accordance with Specifications for said work adopted by the Council of the City of Glendale and known as specifications No. 31, and on file in the office of the City Clerk.

Fourth: That a cement concrete gutter four (4) feet in width and five (5) inches thick be constructed in Sycamore Canon Road between the southeasterly extension of the northeasterly line of Lot 133, of Tract No. 5319, hereinbefore mentioned, and the westerly extension of the northerly line of Lot 9, of Tract No. 3841, hereinbefore mentioned, along the line and at the location shown on Plan No. 809, Sheets 1 and 2, there being excepted therefrom that portion of said street required to be kept in order and repair by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon. Said gutters shall be constructed in accordance with Specifications No. 31 hereinbefore referred to.

Fifth: That a reinforced cement concrete culvert, having an inside depth of eight (8) inches and an inside width of two (2) feet, be constructed in the northerly side of Sycamore Canon Road, the center line thereof at the northerly curb being one hundred twenty-two and forty-five hundredths (122.45) feet southwesterly from the northwesterly corner of Verdugo Road and Sycamore Canon Road.

Also that a reinforced concrete culvert, together with appurtenances, be constructed in Sycamore Canon Road, between the southeasterly curb line of Sycamore Canon Road as shown on Plan No. 809, Sheet 1, and the southeasterly line of said Sycamore Canon Road as shown on said Plan, the center line thereof commencing at a point in the said southeasterly line of Sycamore Canon Road one hundred eleven and seventy-three hundredths (111.73) feet southwesterly measured along said line, from the southeasterly extension of the northeasterly line of Lot 133 of the hereinbefore mentioned Tract No. 5319. Said culvert shall have four channels, each with an extreme inside depth of fourteen (14) inches and an inside width of six (6) feet.

Also that a reinforced cement concrete culvert having an extreme length of forty-two (42) feet and eight (8) inches; an extreme width of eleven and three one-hundredths (11.03) feet, together with appurtenances, and with a connecting twenty-four (24) inch corrugated iron pipe culvert and appurtenances thereto be constructed in Sycamore Canon Road, the same being in the westerly side thereof between the westerly curb line and the westerly property line and extending southerly from the southerly end of the curb return at the southwesterly corner of Acacia Avenue and Sycamore Canon Road, the twenty-four (24) inch corrugated iron culvert to be seventy-four (74) feet in length, and to extend from the westerly curb line of said Sycamore Canon Road across to the easterly line thereof.

Said culverts and appurtenances shall be constructed in accordance with Plan No. 809-C (Sheets 3 and 4), and Plan No. 809 (Sheets 1 and 2), and Specifications No. 31, hereinbefore referred to.

SECTION 2. The grade to which the work shall be done and the improvement made shall be that shown on the profiles therefor on file in the office of the City Engineer of the City of Glendale and being numbered as follows, namely, numbers 738, 737, 204, 220, 770, 732, 145, 771, 382, 850, 733, 984, 196, 915, and 916.

SECTION 3. Where the work proposed to be done on the respective streets and avenues hereinbefore enumerated is described as being done on certain lines, it includes the doing of all the particular work described upon or along the spaces within such streets included within the lines of intersecting or terminating streets, unless the plans show the contrary, and also expressly providing that any duplication of work through said form of description shall be ignored, the description herein of the sizes, locations and extent of the work or improvement being general only, and the plans, profiles and detailed drawings and specifications setting forth the said work or improvement fully and in detail.

PLANS, PROFILES, CROSS-SECTIONS AND SPECIFICATIONS

SECTION 4. All Maps, Cross-sections, Plans and Plats referred to herein are on file in the office of the City Engineer of said City. All Specifications referred to herein are on file in the office of the City Clerk of said City. Said Maps, Plans, Cross-sections, Plats and Specifications are hereby referred to for a more particular description of said work, and of the location, size and extent thereof, and made a part hereof; provided that if there shall be any conflict between this Resolution and said Maps, Cross-sections, Plans or Plats, this Resolution shall be controlled thereby, the said Maps, Cross-sections, Plans, Plats and Profiles giving the full and detailed description of said proposed work or improvement.

DESCRIPTION OF BONDS

SECTION 5. The said Council does hereby declare and determine and notice is hereby given that serial bonds to represent unpaid assessments and to bear interest at the rate of seven per cent (7%) per annum will be issued hereunder in the manner provided in the "Improvement Bond Act of 1915," the last installment of which bonds shall mature nine (9) years from the second day of July next succeeding ten (10) months from their date.

Card Parties Assist Fire Victim's Widow

The benefit card parties given Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of the Broadway and Glendale Avenue Parent-Teacher associations as benefits for Mrs. Joe McGahan were pronounced successes, both socially and financially.

Approximately fifty guests were present at the home of Mrs. C. A. Bowlus, 331 North Adams street; and a similar number at 667 Salem street, where Mrs. A. J. Van Wie presided as hostess. A check for $23.30 has been mailed to Mrs. McGahan, with many good wishes from her associates in the Parent-Teacher association.

She was a member of the Broadway Parent-Teacher association, and also a member of the card club and a popular attendant at the card parties of the Wilson Avenue Parent-Teacher association, and has many warm friends in these organizations, who have taken this manner of expressing sympathy.

Murder Charge Sequel To Fatal Gun Fight

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Nov. 15.—Fernando Romero, cousin of the late Porfiro Diaz, president of Mexico, was being held today on a murder charge as the result of the shooting to death of General Aquila Juarez Rodriguez and Leon Martinez late Tuesday.

The killing was the result of an old political feud.

Coming Events

A number of prominent local women are behind the benefit dance to be given tomorrow night, November 16, at the Eagle Rock lodge at the head of Rosemary avenue. It is anticipated that a merry throng will gather for the enjoyable time that is planned. The patronesses of the affair are: Mrs. H. W. Young, Mrs. Hickson, Mrs. Winter, Mrs. Gertrude Rutz, Mrs. C. Williams, Mrs. B. P. Garrett, Mrs. W. K. Cowan and Mrs. A. G. Riley.

William Cowan's orchestra will furnish the music and Mrs. Garrett will see to it that a sufficient supply of delicious punch is available at all times throughout the evening.

The Drama section of the Business and Professional Women's club will meet at the public library Tuesday, November 20, under the direction of Miss Dorothy LeVoy of Los Angeles.

Guy Bates Post at Mason in 'The Climax'

America's great actor, Guy Bates Post, comes to the Mason Opera House, Los Angeles, for an engagement of two weeks only, beginning Monday, November 19, and ending Saturday night, December 1, with Wednesday, Saturday and Thanksgiving day matinee performances.

Mr. Post is to appear in Edward J. Locke's powerful play, "The Climax," in which, as a music teacher and composer and an exponent of love, he makes an ineffaceable impression with his superb portrayal and with the haunting thematic music of "The Song of a Soul." In "The Climax" Mr. Post ignites the spark of genius that is a part of the subconscious mind of every man and woman, but lies latent in the souls of the vast multitude.

The advance sale opened at the box office at the Mason theatre, Los Angeles, this morning, November 15, at 8 o'clock—one hour earlier than usual. Out-of-town patrons should send in their mail orders to the Mason, accompanied by check or postoffice money order and self-addressed, stamped envelope. Mail orders are being received in large numbers from towns and cities and the rural districts adjacent to Los Angeles, indicating an enormous sale. Mail orders and out-of-town patrons will receive the same scrupulous attention as if they stood at the box office window buying their seats.

The free list and telephone orders to set seats aside will be discontinued during Mr. Post's engagement. The first mail orders and the first patrons at the box office will receive the first choice of seats, and early applications are earnestly resuested. Mr. Post does not play any other city in Southern California.

Merger Of London Dailies Now Being Considered, Report

LORD BEAVERBROOK

Lord Beaverbrook, who recently purchased part of the Hulton newspaper interests in England, plans more deals in the newspaper field, according to word from London. It is said he has acquired controlling interest in the famous Pall Mall Gazette from Sir John Leigh and will soon combine the Gazette and the Evening Standard, of which he has also secured control. Such a move would leave London with but three evening papers. The reported negotiations have not been denied or affirmed.

Wife Forgive Kels In Prison Reunion

FOLSOM, Cal., Nov. 15.—In a dramatic meeting in the office of the warden of the state prison here late yesterday, Alex Kels, Lodi butcher, awaiting death by hanging, was forgiven by his wife for his misdeeds and the two staged a two-hour reunion during which they had what probably will be their last meal together.

Mrs. Kels, who learned only last Saturday that her husband was alive and that he confessed to the murder of an itinerant worker whom she had buried in the belief it was her husband, embraced her husband as he was led into the warden's office and her first inquiry was whether he had received her letter of forgiveness. The two conversed in low tones in the presence of a guard for more than an hour when the warden permitted them to have lunch together.
